'It's great to be home'

Pro or college, the choice was clear for Schiano

Greg Schiano, who previously led Rutgers to new heights from 2001-11, is in his second season back as the head football coach "On the Banks."

Schiano has directed the Scarlet Knights to six bowl appearances, coached 85 RU players who signed NFL contracts and guided the program to the top APR score in the nation so far during his time leading Rutgers football. The 2006 National Coach of the Year owns three nine-win campaigns and coached 17 Rutgers All-America selections, posting 59 wins in his last eight seasons at the helm.

RUTGERS GETS YOU READY

Rutgers football set records both on and off the field under the guidance of head coach Greg Schiano. Upholding the academic prestige of Rutgers University was the standard for the Scarlet Knights, who secured the nation's top Academic Progress Rate in 2010 and ranked No. 2 in 2011. Rutgers was the only state university ranked in the top 10 percent in each of Schiano's last five seasons.

The Scarlet Knights have made their impact felt in the community as well, volunteering with Special Olympics NJ, visiting local hospitals and participating in youth camps. The group has also lent their voices to critical discussions around social activism, racial justice and tolerance.

Coach Schiano is one of the biggest influences in my life. His ability to develop young men is second to none. I have more respect and appreciation for him than any coach I have ever been around.

BRIAN LEONARD, 2003-06

I'm fired up to see what's to come for Rutgers. Schiano had a lot of success his first time there and I got to witness first hand the lessons he taught us as a head coach.

JASON MCCOURTY, 2005-08

He knows you're never going to be perfect, but he's going to try and get the best out of you every single day. You'll take that with you for the rest of your life. Our fan base has something to be excited about. This will be a football team that is prepared, plays hard and goes out every Saturday and gives it its all.

MIKE TEEL, 2004-08

It's amazing to have Coach Schiano back here at Rutgers University. He's done so much for me in my personal career. The culture he built here allowed me to form relationships that will last a lifetime. I'm super blessed to have had him as a coach, and I know the University is blessed to have him back.

NFL KNIGHTS

Schiano mentored 85 Scarlet Knights who went on to sign NFL contracts. That includes first-round picks in Kenny Britt (2009), Anthony Davis (2010) and Devin McCourty (2010). Rutgers had never had a player taken in the first round before Britt went 30th overall to the Tennessee Titans. Davis' selection at No. 11 by the San Francisco 49ers marked the highest draftee in school history. McCourty, who went 27th to the New England Patriots, has won three rings in five trips to the Super Bowl.

Eleven Scarlet Knights who played for Schiano at Rutgers entered the 2021 season active on NFL rosters (Michael Burton, Andrew DePaola, Michael Dwumfour, Duron Harmon, Clark Harris, Tyler Kroft, Devin McCourty, Jason McCourty, Logan Ryan, Mohamed Sanu and Brendon White).

Rutgers football has one of the top football complexes in the nation. Included within the Hale Center are the state-of-the-art Ron and Joanna Garutti Strength and Conditioning Center, an interactive lobby entrance, spacious meeting rooms, a player lounge and an in-house academic support center.

The recently upgraded Marco Battaglia Practice Complex is the site where the Scarlet Knights train and practice. Their downtime is spent in the new Greg and Anna Brown Locker Room thanks to the generosity of the Brown family.

In New Jersey, our fans are just louder- around here we call it the Jersey Factor. SHI Stadium is home of the Rutgers Scarlet Knights and is located on campus in Piscataway. Packed, loud and 52,454 proud, SHI Stadium is the site for the ultimate college game day experience. Each fall Saturday, New Jerseyans unite in the excitement generated by The Knight Pulse, a game day tradition where fans pound their chests to the beat of "The Hum," as the energy in the stadium builds to a crescendo in the biggest stadium moments. Combined with the Knight riding horseback into the stadium and unique performances by the Rutgers Marching Band, the atmosphere on game day is electric.

"The R Edge program is a major step in helping our student-athletes maximize their potential," said Rutgers Athletic Director Pat Hobbs: "We make every effort to prepare our student-athletes for success in the classroom and in competition. In this fast-changing landscape, we also want to do everything we can to prepare them to take advantage of these new opportunities. The New York metropolitan area offers unique access and exposure for any student-athlete competing for the Scarlet Knights."

HISTORY & TRADITION

RUTGERS FOOTBALL

GREG SCHIANO HEAD COACH (13TH SEASON)

Greg Schiano, who previously led Rutgers to new heights from 2001-11, is in his second season back as the head football coach "On the Banks." The Wyckoff, New Jersey, native returned home to Piscataway on Dec. 3, 2019 and immediately made an impact on and off the field in 2020.

Schiano has directed the Scarlet Knights to six bowl appearances, coached 85 RU players who signed NFL contracts and guided the program to the top APR score in the nation so far during his time leading Rutgers football. The 2006 National Coach of the Year owns three nine-win campaigns and coached 17 Rutgers All-America selections, posting a 59-40 mark in his last eight seasons at the helm. His 71 overall wins are fourth in school history, behind Frank Burns (78), Harvey Harman (74) and John Bateman (73).

"Rutgers University and this football program have meant the world to me and my family," Schiano said upon returning. "I arrived here in 2000 with the goal to build a program that would he a source of pride for the state of New Jersey and develop great young men. I look forward to embracing that challenge once again. This is a great opportunity for all of Rutgers to pull together to get us back to where we all know we belong. It will take everyone on this campus and in the State of Rutgers

The 2020 season presented unforeseen challenges dealing with the coronavirus pandemic. Playing a Big Ten-only schedule, the Scarlet Knights were one of just two teams in the conference to play all nine of its scheduled games. RU, despite missing spring and summer camp, matched the program high with three Big Ten victories, all away to equal the number of league road wins the previous six seasons combined.

With a commitment to player and culture development, the Scarlet Knights had 14 players recognized in the All-Big Ten voting, the most for the program since joining the conference. That included four on the top-three teams, with wide receiver Aron Cruickshank, the Big Ten Rodgers-Dwight Return Specialist of the Year and honorable mention All-America pick by Phil Steele, and linebacker Olakunle Fatukasi both earning first-team honors.

Rutgers posted a program-best 26.7 points per game in a Big Ten season, with eight games of at least 20 points after reaching the mark only five times in the prior four years. The 13.4 more points per game than 2019 marked the fourth-best improvement nationally following the regular season, while the scoring differential in Big Ten play was the best for the team by a margin of 8.6. The defense had at least one takeaway in 8-of-9 games with 19 overall, the most since 2012, and led the league with 7.8 tackles-for-loss per game.

Off the field, the Scarlet Knights launched #Chop4Change to spread a message of unity and equality amidst the national social justice discussion, while registering every student-athlete on the team to vote in the 2020 election. The initiative also involved giving back to the community through various forms.

The program also achieved academic success with 46 studentathletes recognized on the Fall Academic All-Big Ten list, the most for the Scarlet Knights since joining the conference. The team posted its highest GPA ever as a program during the spring 2020 semester.

After making one prior trip to a bowl game in Rutgers football history. Schiano led the team to six bowls in the final seven seasons of his first stint, including the program's first bowl victory. The Scarlet Knights won the last five, which was the longest active streak in the nation following the 2011 season. In addition, RU was ranked in 20 weeks during Schiano's first tenure after appearing in the AP Poll only nine times prior.

Schiano first took over on Dec. 1, 2000. "This program will be built on a rock foundation," he said, "It will take longer than building it on stilts, but when it's built, it will be built forever. This is where I started; this is where I was striving to get back to. I'm thrilled to be here. It's time."

Building up the Scarlet Knights with three rejuvenating recruiting classes to start, Schiano put together an upset win over Syracuse to close 2003 before knocking off Michigan State to start 2004 in front of the largest crowd in Rutgers Stadium history at the time (42,612). The team broke through in 2005 with a 7-5 record, the first winning season since 1992, and a trip to the Insight Bowl for RU's first bowl appearance since 1978.

Moving to the memorable 2006 campaign, Rutgers went 11-2, earned the program's first national top-10 ranking (peaking at No. 7) and won a howl championship with a convincing 37-10. victory over Kansas State in the Texas Bowl. "Pandemonium in Piscataway" was achieved with a 28-25 unset of No. 3 Louisville in front a raucous home crowd and national television audience. It was the first triumph for the program over a top-25 opponent since 1988. Schiano collected the Eddie Robinson, Walter Camp, Home Depot and Liberty Mutual National Coach of the Year, as well as the Big East Coach of the Year following the season. The final national ranking of No. 12 still stands as the high-water mark in program history.

The momentum continued in 2007 with eight more wins, which included a 30-27 victory over No. 2 USF. The season was capped by running past Ball State, 52-30, in the International Bowl and set school records for scoring (426), first downs (294) and total offense (5,841). The 2008 campaign started 1-5, but the Scarlet Knights reeled off a six-game winning streak to become bowl eligible again and went on to beat NC State, 29-23, in the Papalohns.com Bowl to finish with seven-straight in the win column. Then in 2009, RU beat a top-25 opponent for the fourth consecutive year and took down UCF, 45-24, in the St. Petersburg Bowl to finish off a 9-4 season.

In 2011, Rutgers had its third nine-win season under Schiano, tying Burns for the most in program history. The Scarlet Knights defeated Iowa State, 27-13, in the Pinstripe Bowl for the fifth-straight bowl win.

Schiano coached the leading rusher, passer and receiver by vards in Rutgers football history, sending all to the NFL, Ray Rice finished with 4,926 rushing yards, 1,812 more than second place, with 49 touchdowns. He holds the top two spots on the RU single-game rushing leaderboard with a high of 280 in the 2008 International Bowl. Mike Teel was a three-year starting quarterback and is the only signal caller in school history to lead the Scarlet Knights to three bowl victories. Throwing for 9,398 yards overall, he still owns single-game school records for passing yards (447) and touchdowns (7) in Rutgers' 63-14 victory over Louisville in 2008. Britt was a primary target for Teel, recording 3,403 receiving yards. He once had five consecutive games with over 100 yards and totaled 14 such outings, both school standards

Schiano also turned special teams in a game-changing force for the Scarlet Knights. RU has blocked 60 kicks during to rank among the nation's leaders, while scoring 54 defensive/special teams touchdowns, including three in 2020. Kicker Jeremy Ito shattered the school record with 80 career field goals and earned All-America status

While producing victories at a rate unprecedented in the program's history, the Rutgers football team is also committed fully to succeeding in the classroom. In 2010, Rutgers ranked first in the nation in Academic Progress Rate. The team followed that up with the nation's No. 2 ranking in 2011. The program was the lone state university to be ranked in the top 10 percent nationally in APR during each of Schiano's last five seasons of his first term

Nate Jones became the program's first two-time CoSIDA Academic All-America selection (2002-03) and was a member of the National Football Foundation/College Football Hall of Fame National Scholar Class of 2003, one of just eight FBS players honored. In addition, Brandon Renkert earned CoSIDA Academic All-America status in 2007, while Brian Leonard received the prestigious Draddy Trophy, recognized as the "Academic Heisman," in 2006.

The emphasis on academics continued in 2020 with a program-high 46 Academic All-Big Ten selections and the highest recorded GPA in team history during the spring 2020 semester.

Known as a tireless recruiter with the ability to spot talent and develop players, Schiano has mentored 85 Scarlet Knights who went on to sign NFL contracts. That includes first-round picks in Kenny Britt (2009), Anthony Davis (2010) and Devin Mc-Courty (2010). Rutgers had never had a player taken in the first round before Britt went 30th overall to the Tennessee Titans. Davis' selection at No. 11 by the San Francisco 49ers marked the highest draftee in school history. McCourty, who went 27th to the New England Patriots, has won three rings in five trips to the Super Bowl.

Eleven Scarlet Knights who played for Schiano at Rutgers entered the 2021 season active on NFL rosters (Michael Burton, Andrew DePaola, Michael Dwumfour, Duron Harmon, Clark Harris, Tyler Kroft, Devin McCourty, Jason McCourty, Logan Ryan, Mohamed Sanu and Brendon White).

Schiano accepted the head coach position for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in Jan. 2012 and spent two seasons at the helm of the NFL franchise

Schiano returned to the sidelines as the associate head coach and defensive coordinator, also coaching safeties, at Ohio State in 2016. He coached 10 players who were NFL Draft picks, five of whom were first-round selections during his three seasons. There were three first-round picks from the secondary in the 2017 NFL Draft: Malik Hooker (Indianapolis), Gareon Conley (Oakland) and Marshon Lattimore (New Orleans). Hooker, a unanimous All-America pick in 2016, was first nationally with three "pick-sixes" and third nationally with seven interceptions that season

RUTGERS FOOTBALL

The Buckeyes went 36-5 in Schiano's three years as defensive coordinator and 24-3 against Big Ten opponents. That led to two Big Ten titles plus wins in the 2017 Cotton Bowl and 2019 Rose Bowl. In addition. OSU was No. 6 nationally in total defense under Schiano in 2016 when advancing to the College Football Playoff semifinals.

The Buckeyes were one of just three programs to rank in the top 10 in total defense in both 2016 and 2017. Schiano was the No. 2 recruiter in the nation by 247Sports and CBSSports.com for the 2018 signing class.

Schiano served as the defensive coordinator at Miami in 1999 and 2000 before becoming the Rutgers head coach. The Hurricanes posted a 20-5 record during that time, including 11-1, the No. 2 national ranking and a Sugar Bowl win in 2000. That defense finished fifth nationally in scoring defense (15.5) after ranking 12th in the category the year before (17.2). Following the 2000 season, linebacker Dan Morgan, who was the 11th overall pick in the NFL Draft, became the first player in college football history to win the Butkus Award (top linebacker), Nagurski Award (college defensive player of the year) and Bednarik Award (top defensive player) in the same year, in addition to being a consensus first-team All-America selection and the Big East Defensive Player of the Year. Strong safety Ed Reed was also a consensus first-team All-America honoree in 2000 and would later earn a spot in the both the College Football Hall of Fame and Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Prior to his assignment in Miami, Schiano spent three seasons in the NFL with the Chicago Bears (1996-98). The 1997 team placed first in the NFC in third-down defense (31.7 percent), while the 1996 squad climbed from 27th in the NFL to 11th in fewest vards allowed.

Schiano was the defensive backfield coach at Penn State from 1991-95 after working as a graduate assistant in 1990. The Nittany Lions picked up 58 wins throughout those years and made six bowl appearances. The 1994 PSU team went 12-0 (8-0 Big Ten) and finished No. 2 in the national rankings after beating Oregon in the Rose Bowl. He previously was a graduate assistant at Rutgers in 1989, beginning his coaching career as an assistant as his alma mater, Ramapo High School, the year before.

Schiano was a three-year letterwinner at linebacker for Bucknell (1985-87). He was named to the Sporting News All-America Preseason Team in 1987. He served as a team captain his senior year after leading the team with 114 tackles as a junior to earn All-Patriot League honors.

RUTGERS

- Named a candidate for the 2020 Broyles Award, which annually honors the top assistant coach in college football.
- Rutgers posted a program-best 26.7 points per game in a Big Ten season. The Scarlet Knights scored at least 20 points in eight games after reaching the mark five times the previous four seasons and 12 times in the first 52 Big Ten games. The 26.7 points per game ranked eighth in the Big Ten, improving from No. 14 the preceding season, as the previous best ranking in Big Tenonly games was 11th.
- Rutgers finished as the fourth-most improved team in the nation by scoring offense (+13.4 points per game). The Scarlet Knights scored 81 more points than in 2019 (playing three fewer games), the sixth-best improvement in the nation in total points scored (the five higher teams all played 12 games). In addition, RU was the most improved in the Big Ten total in touchdowns scored (+12) and offensive touchdowns (+9).
- Rutgers averaged over 300 yards per game in a Big Ten season for the first time since 2015. The increase of 66 yards per game overall was the best improvement among Big Ten teams. The 3,052 yards of total offense was 1,172 more than the previous year in Big Ten play.

- Saw wide receiver Bo Melton (one of three receivers in the Big Ten to rank in the top six in receptions, receiving yards and receiving touchdowns) and offensive linemen Raiqwon O'Neal and Reggie Sutton earn All-Big Ten accolades.
- Utilized three different quarterbacks in creative ways, with Noah Vedral ranking third in the Big Ten with a 61.5 completion percentage, Johnny Langar rushing for nine first downs in the win at Purdue and Artur Sitkowski leading a game-tying drive to force overtime in the comeback victory over Maryland.

OKLAHOMA STATE

- After six seasons at Princeton, Gleeson was hired by Oklahoma State as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in Jan. 2019 and spent one season in Stillwater.
- The Cowboys' offense averaged 32.5 points (36th nationally) and 453.9 yards (22nd nationally) per game with two ranked wins and a berth in the 2019 Texas Bowl. The balanced unit (2,985 rushing yards, 2,916 passing yards) also ranked 17th in the country with 229.6 rushing yards per game and 27th with a 64.1 completion percentage.
- Three offensive players earned All-Big 12 honors, including Big 12 Offensive Player Chuba Hubbard, Big 12 Offensive Freshman of the Year Spencer Sanders and second-team wide receiver Tylan Wallace. Hubbard was also named a consensus All-America pick and a Doak Walker Award finalist after leading the nation with 2,093 rushing yards and 179.54 all-purpose yards per game.

PRINCETON

- Gleeson engineered one of the most explosive offenses in the Football Championship Subdivision and helped the Tigers to an undefeated 2018 season. In Gleeson's six years on staff, Princeton won three Ivy League championships and averaged 36.9 points per game, which marked the program's highest output over a six-year stretch in program history.
- In addition to posting a perfect 10-0 record in 2018, Princeton led the FCS in scoring offense by averaging 47.0 points per game and ranked in the top 10 nationally in total offense (second with 536.8 yards per game), rushing offense (sixth with 295.5 yards per game), third-down conversion percentage (second with a mark of 53.4 percent) and pass efficiency (seventh with a mark of 161.26). The Tigers' 470 points scored set an lvy League record.
- Coached directly by Gleeson, Tiger quarterback John Lovett excelled as a dual-threat performer to win 2018 by League Offensive Player of the Year. Lovett, who completed 66.1 percent of his passes with 18 touchdowns, led the by League by averaging 303.0 yards of total offense per game, passing for 203.7 yards per game and rushing for 99.3 yards per contest and became Princeton's first two-time first-team All-American since 1964.
- Three members of the 2018 Tigers' offense went on to the NFL. Wide receivers Jesper Horsted (Chicago Bears), also an All-America pick, and Stephen Carlson (Cleveland Browns) joined Lovett (signed with Kansas City Chiefs, spent 2020 with Green Bay Packers) moving to the next level.

PLAYING EXPERIENCE

• Gleeson played quarterback at Williams College, where he graduated in 2007 with a degree in English. While at Williams, Gleeson was the highest-rated passer in the New England Small College Athletic Conference in 2005 (minimum 100 attempts), with a rating of 163.6. His team finished 8-0 in 2006. Gleeson also played first base for the baseball team at Williams.

• Led a defense that gained 19 turnovers, most in a season for the team since 2012 when he was previously RU defensive coordinator, and an increase of 10 from the preceding season. That included at least one takeaway in eight games, multiple in four games and at least four two times highlighted by seven (most for Rutgers in a game since 2000) in the season-opening win at Michigan State.

- Rutgers led the Big Ten and ranked No. 11 nationally with 7.8 tackles-forloss per game. Had three games in double figures with a high of 13 in the win at Maryland. Rutgers posted 21 sacks, most in a Big Ten season and an increase of eight from the previous season.
- Saw linebacker Olakunle Fatukasi (first team) and Tre Avery (third team) earn All-Big Ten honors to mark the first time the Scarlet Knights had multiple defensive All-Big Ten selections in the same season. Seven additional players on the defense secured honorable mention status.

RECENT EXPERIENCE

- Smith spent the 2019 season as a defensive analyst with Texas A&M and prior to that, served as the defensive coordinator at Minnesota during the 2017 and 2018 seasons.
- The Golden Gophers allowed a total of 274 points in 2017, the fewest permitted by the team since 2004. Smith also worked with the linebackers and saw Thomas Barber earn All-Big Ten Third Team honors after posting 115 tackles.
- Smith came to Minnesota from Arkansas, where he spent three seasons as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach. His defense ranked No. 10 in both scoring defense (19.2 points per game) and total defense (323.4 yards per game) in 2014. It was the first time since Arkansas joined the SEC in 1992 that the Razorbacks had finished in the top 10 in either statistic. In addition, Arkansas became the first unranked team in college football history to post back-to-back shutouts of ranked opponents when the Razorbacks blanked No. 20 LSU and No. 8 Ole Miss in November. In 2015, Smith's unit excelled against the run, as Arkansas held 12-of-13 opponents below their season rushing average. The Razorbacks allowed only 116.46 yards per game on the ground, which ranked second in the Southeastern Conference and 12th in the nation. Then in 2016, Smith's defense was at its best in the second half of games, as Arkansas allowed only 51 points in the third quarter and 73 in the fourth quarter.

TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS

 Smith spent the 2013 season as linebackers coach for Schiano in Tampa Bay, which included coaching Lavonte David. An All-Pro, David became the first linebacker and third player since the sack became an official statistic in 1982 to register at least 100 tackles with at least six sacks and five or more interceptions in a season.

FIRST RUTGERS STINT

- Smith served in various capacities on the Rutgers staff, including defensive coordinator and secondary coach in 2012, special teams coordinator and linebackers coach in 2011, special teams coordinator and cornerbacks coach in 2010 and special teams coordinator and outside linebackers coach in 2009. The 2012 season saw Rutgers claim its first conference title since 1961 and the fifth in school history. The Scarlet Knights finished the year ranked fourth in the nation in points allowed per game (14.2), sith in rushing yards allowed per game (95.2), 10th in total defense (311.6 yards per game) and tied for third in rushing touchdowns allowed (6). Rutgers allowed just 91 points against seven Big East opponents, ranking as the eighth-lowest total in conference history. The defense held opponents to 95.2 rushing yards per game, only the third time in school history the Scarlet Knights kept the opponent average below 100 yards.
- Under Smith's guidance, Rutgers became one of the best special teams units in college football. While Smith was at Rutgers, the Scarlet Knights led the nation with 31 blocked kicks.

RUTGERS FOOTBALL

- Oversaw kick return units that scored three touchdowns (two kickoff, one punt). Rutgers finished as one of four teams nationally, and only in the Big Ten, to reach the mark and one of 10 teams in the country with at least one kickoff and one punt return score. Rutgers led the Big Ten and ranked No. 16 nationally with 25.73 yards per kickoff return.
- · Aron Cruickshank earned the Big Ten Rodgers-Dwight Return Specialist of the Year and First Team All-Big Ten by the media and coaches, and was named honorable mention All-America as a kick returner by Phil Steele. He was one of four players tied for the nation's lead, and the only in the Big Ten, with two kickoff return touchdowns (100 yards at Purdue, 98 yards versus Nebraska). Cruickshank picked up 671 combined kick returns yards to rank fourth nationally and first in the conference
- · Reset the school record with a net punt of 42.27, second in the Big Ten and eighth nationally. Punter Adam Korsak earned Second Team All-Big Ten after averaging 43 yards per game (fourth-best in a season in program history) with eight attempts of at least 50 yards, 22 fair catches forced, 21 inside the 20 and no touchbacks.

• Two kickers (Valentino Ambrosio & Guy Fava) with zero prior field goal attempts combined to go 11-for-13, with Ambrosio kicking a tying field goal as time expired and later the game-winner in overtime to beat Maryland. Long snapper Billy Taylor selected Second Team All-Big Ten by Phil Steele, earned Big Ten Sportsmanship Award and was a semifinalist for the William V. Campbell Trophy.

- Scheier spent the 2019 season as senior special teams consultant at Mississippi State, as the Bulldogs earned a spot in the Music City Bowl. In 2018, he served as Texas Tech's special teams coordinator, earning a Broyles Award nomination, and overlapped with head coach Greg Schiano on the 2017 Ohio State staff.
- In 2018, Scheier served as special teams coordinator at Texas Tech and merited a Broyles Award nomination. The Red Raiders were one of only three schools nationally that produced a semifinalist for both the Lou Groza Award and the Ray Guy Award. Kicker Clayton Hatfield was named First Team All-Big 12 with 106 points and ranked sixth nationally in field goal percentage (.895). Punter Dominic Panazzolo, who downed 21 boots inside the 20-yard line, and returner De'Quan Bowman, who placed fourth in the country with 906 combined kick return yards, both earned honorable mention All-Big 12 status.
- . Scheier arrived in Lubbock after spending the 2017 season at Ohio State, where he served as a special teams quality control coach. In that role, he worked closely with head coach Urban Meyer on game-planning, scheme development, opponent scouting and personnel for a team that won the Big Ten Championship Game and finished No. 5 in the AP Poll.

WAKE FOREST/BOWLING GREEN

- Scheier helped build several of the nation's top special teams units during his three years at Wake Forest, as the Demon Deacons ranked fourth nationally in net punting during his first season in 2014 and then eighth in 2015. Wake Forest led the ACC each of those two seasons and also ranked 13th nationally for kickoff coverage in 2014. Punter Alex Kinal became a two-time semifinalist for the Ray Guy Award and ended his tenure at Wake Forest ranked fourth all-time in career punting (41.8 yards per punt).
- Scheier, who was also the tight ends coach at Wake Forest and Bowling Green, was instrumental in the development of Freshman All-American Cam Serigne, who set the Wake Forest single-season record for receptions by a tight end as just a redshirt freshman in 2014 and ended as the school's all-time career leader for both receptions and receiving yards by a tight end.
- · Scheier was similarly successful during his stint at Bowling Green, as the Falcons regularly ranked among the top special teams units in the Mid-American Conference (MAC). During his five-year tenure, Bowling Green blocked 16 kicks, returned three kickoffs

Under Pierce's guidance, Rowan finished third in the NJAC with 151.6 rushing yards per game in 2019. Junior running back Messiah Divine led the conference in rushing yards per game with 78.4 en route to First Team All-NJAC honors.

Prior to his arrival at Rowan, Pierce served as the offensive coordinator at Cumberland Regional High School from 2017-18. He also worked as an instructional assistant during his tenure at Cumberland Regional.

Before he entered the coaching ranks, Pierce enjoyed a professional career with the Spokane Empire (2016-17) and the Tri-City Fever (2015) of the Indoor Football League (IFL). Pierce led the league in scoring with 28 touchdowns in 2015 and helped the Spokane Empire to a 2016 IFL title

Pierce was a three-time All-American and two-time team captain at Delaware, where he finished as the program's second all-time leading rusher with 4,450 career yards on the ground. Pierce produced back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons in 2010 and 2011, which included 1,655 yards in 2010, a Delaware freshman record.

Pierce earned a bachelor's degree in health behavior science in 2014 from Delaware and is working toward his master's degree in school leadership at Wilmington University.

JOHN PERRY OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

John Perry, who has 28 seasons of coaching experience including as a head coach, joined the Scarlet Knights in 2021 as an offensive assistant. He spent the last seven years as an assistant coach for the Houston Texans, most recently the previous four coaching the wide receivers after starting as the tight ends coach.

In 2019, Perry's group helped the Texans tie a team record for most overall touchdowns scored (46) in a single season (2009 and 2012) and set franchise records for highest redzone touchdown percentage (64.2) and fewest three-and-outs (24). Houston also tallied 27 receptions of 30-or-more yards in 2019, which tied for third in the NFL. DeAndre Hopkins was named an Associated Press NFL All-Pro First Team selection for a third-straight season and earned his third-straight Pro Bowl nod after leading the team with 104 receptions, 1,165 yards and seven touchdowns.

In 2018, the Texans captured an AFC South title with an 11-5 record, with rookie Keke Coutee adding to the unit by hauling in 11 passes for 109 yards in his NFL debut, marking the most receptions by a rookie wideout in an NFL debut since the NFL/AFL merger.

As tight ends coach from 2014-16. Perry helped the Texans win back-to-back AFC South division championships in 2015-16 and post three-straight winning seasons. Texans' tight ends had the most productive season in franchise history in 2016. Perry's unit improved by NFL-bests of 74 receptions and 4.6 receptions per game over its 2015 totals and finished with second-best increases in receiving yards (646) and receiving yards per game (40.4).

Before joining the Texans, Perry was the passing game coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Delaware. Prior to Delaware, Perry served as head coach at NCAA Division II Merrimack College for five seasons (2008-12), where he led the Warriors to a record of 29-21 and the 2009 Northeast-10 title. During his tenure, Merrimack produced six All-Americans and two Northeast-10 Conference Players of the Year. Perry's up-tempo, high-scoring offense was one of the best in the league for all five of his seasons on campus, as Merrimack won the Northeast-10 Championship in 2009. The team ranked second in the nation in total offense in 2012 at 525.8 yards per game and finished in the top 10 in 2009 (fourth), 2010 (ninth) and 2011 (seventh).

Perry began his coaching career as running backs coach at Northeastern in 1993, and later served as receivers coach at Brown (1994-96). He also had stops as receivers coach and recruiting coordinator at New Hampshire (1997-98), offensive coordinator at Dartmouth (1999-2004), associate head coach and quarterbacks coach at Georgetown (2005), offensive coordinator at Hofstra (2006) and associate head coach and quarterbacks coach at New Hampshire (2007).

A 1992 graduate of New Hampshire, Perry enjoyed a standout career as a football and basketball player for the Wildcats. He was a four-year starter in football, served as team captain as a senior, and was a two-time All-Yankee Conference selection while setting several receiving records. Perry and his wife, Jen, have three children, Caitlin, John and Elizabeth. His brother, James, is currently the head football coach at Brown

ADAM WEBER OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Adam Weber is in his second season as an offensive assistant after working the four previous years as a defensive quality control coach for the Scarlet Knights. He primarily worked with the safeties.

He arrived at Rutgers from Ohio State, where he spent two and a half years as a defensive assistant with the Buckeyes. That included being part of the 2014 national championship team.

Prior to OSU, Weber worked in the athletic department at Bishop Kenny High School in Jacksonville, Florida. He also served as an account assistant representative with the Jacksonville Jaguars.

SUPPORT STAFF

Weber earned his bachelor's degree from the University of North Florida in sports management in 2012. While at UNF, he worked in the Ospreys' athletic department as a development intern.

TJ WEYL OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

TJ Weyl is in his second year as an offensive assistant at Rutgers. Weyl spent the previous two seasons on staff at Vanderbilt and also worked at Monmouth and Princeton.

Weyl served as a defensive graduate assistant with the Commodores from 2018-19, where he worked primarily with the inside linebackers. Vanderbilt picked up six wins and earned a trip to the Texas Bowl against Baylor in 2018.

In 2017, Weyl served as quality control assistant for a Princeton offense that averaged 38.2 points, 483 total yards and 351 passing yards per game. In 2016, Weyl started his coaching career as an offensive quality control coach at Monmouth.

A native of Medfield, Massachusetts, Weyl earned a master's degree in liberal arts and sciences from Vanderbilt in 2020 and a bachelor's degree in history from Cornell in 2012. Weyl played lacrosse for the Big Red and helped Cornell to back-to-back NCAA Final Four appearances in 2009 and 2010.

SCOTT VALLONE OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Scott Vallone, who holds the Rutgers football program record with 53 career games played, is in his second season back on the Scarlet Knights' staff. He spent 2020 as an offensive graduate assistant after previously coaching the defensive line at Fordham for two years. That included serving as associate head coach (2019).

In his first year with the Rams, Vallone guided a line that helped the defense lead the Patriot League and rank 20th in the NCAA FCS in tackles-for-loss (7.5/game). The team placed 36th nationally with 2.42 sacks per game in 2019.

Vallone joined the Fordham staff after spending two years at St. Lawrence University as the team's defensive coordinator. He also coached the linebackers in 2017 and the defensive line in 2016. In 2017, Vallone saw linebacker Skyler Williamson earn Liberty Conference Defensive Player of the Year and First Team All-Region honors along with three other players who earned All-Liberty Conference accolades. The St. Lawrence defense led the Liberty Conference in fourth-down conversion (seventh in the NCAA), tackles-for-loss (12th in the NCAA), first downs defense (41st in the NCAA), third down conversion and sacks.

In 2016, Vallone led the Saints defense to one of the most dominant seasons in program history. St. Lawrence was the top-ranked team in the Liberty League in 13 defensive categories and ranked in the top 10 in the nation in five categories, including scoring defense (second, 11.0 points allowed per game), defensive touchdowns (third, six in 10 games), first downs defense (seventh overall and third among teams that played more than eight games, 129 allowed), red zone defense (seventh, .500) and tackles-for-loss (ninth, 9.1 per game). Among the Saints' defensive leaders was Chyron Brown-Wallace, current Rutgers graduate assistant and the most decorated St. Lawrence football player in nearly 35 years. He earned the highest vote total among NCAA Division III athletes for the Cliff Harris Award, which recognizes the best small college defensive player in the nation. A two-time American Football Coaches Association First Team All-American, Brown-Wallace was the 2016 Liberty League Defensive Player of the Year and earned D3football.com All-American honors.

Vallone served as the defensive line assistant coach at his alma mater, Rutgers University, in 2015 and started his coaching career as St. Lawrence's defensive line coach in 2014.

Vallone graduated from Rutgers in 2012 with a Bachelor of Arts in economics. A four-year starter for the Scarlet Knights at defensive tackle, he was a First Team All-Big East selection and the school's Best Rush Lineman Award winner as a senior after posting a teamhigh 12.5 tackles-for-loss. He finished his career with 195 tackles and made 51 consecutive starts. A Football Writers Association of America Freshman All-America selection in 2009, he scored a touchdown against North Carolina Central after recovering a fumble in the end zone in the first game of the 2011 season.

Following graduation, Vallone had professional stints with three NFL teams, including the Miami Dolphins, Detroit Lions and New England Patriots. He also spent time in the CFL with the Montreal Alouettes.

JORDAN HUXTABLE DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Jordan Huxtable is in his third season with the Scarlet Knights and second serving as a defensive assistant. He worked as a defensive quality control coach in 2019.

Huxtable spent the 2018 season as an assistant defensive backs coach at Morehead State. Huxtable helped Sayyid Kanu earn honorable mention All-Pioneer honors after the senior corner produced a team-best 62 tackles along with a team-high six pass breakups and two interceptions.

Prior to his arrival at Morehead State, Huxtable worked the 2017 season on the coaching staff at Elmhurst College and the 2016 campaign as a coaching intern at Northern Illinois. At NIU, Huxtable assisted with the cornerbacks.

The St. Charles, Illinois, native played football at the University of Connecticut and Northern Illinois before he closed out his collegiate career at Illinois State. Huxtable earned his bachelor's degree in university studies from Illinois State in 2016.

DREW LASCARI
DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Drew Lascari is in his fourth season on the Rutgers football staff. Now in year two as a defensive assistant, he served as the quarterbacks coach for the last eight games of the 2019 season. Lascari worked as special teams quality control coach for the Scarlet Knights in 2018. Prior to his arrival at RU, Lascari was the head coach at Cardinal Mooney Catholic High School in Sarasota, Florida.

Lascari spent three seasons at the helm of the Cardinal Mooney varsity team, establishing the structure, core beliefs and goals for the football program. He was responsible for organizing all practices, game plan implementation and scheduling, while managing a staff of 15 coaches. Lascari led a six-win improvement as the team went from 2-8 in year one to an 8-2 record in his second season. He also oversaw the academic progress management for each student and designed the team's strength program.

A native of Pequannock, New Jersey, Lascari began his coaching career at Don Bosco Prep where he spent six seasons with the Ironmen. He served as the offensive coordinator during his tenure, including coaching the wide receiver and quarterback positions. Lascari was also the team's NCAA placement coordinator and head strength coach.

Lascari developed the daily practice schedule and scripts, as well as handled all offensive installations, scouting reports and game film analysis. While at Don Bosco, Lascari coached former Rutgers wide receiver and All-Big Ten selection Leonte Carroo.

Lascari graduated from Pequannock Township High School and later played football at SUNY Cortland, where he was a four-year letterwinner and Academic All-American. He earned a bachelor's degree in Health Science from SUNY Cortland and a master's degree in sports management at Columbia University.

DAMASO MUÑOZ DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Born in Brooklyn, New York, and raised in Miami, Florida, Damaso Muñoz is in his second season as a defensive assistant for the Scarlet Knights. He was a four-year letterwinner as a Rutgers linebacker from 2006-09, as the team won a bowl championship each season.

Previously, Muñoz served as an assistant coach at Florida powerhouse St. Thomas Aquinas, helping the team to a perfect 15-0 record, after working with defensive backs and special teams at NAIA Keiser University.

SUPPORT STAFF

As a player, Muñoz was recruited to Rutgers out of Miami Southridge High School and went on to play in 51 games for the Scarlet Knights with 200 career tackles, 20 tackles-for-loss and three interceptions. He also had a 35-yard kickoff return for a touchdown in the St. Petersburg Bowl, a 45-24 victory over UCF.

Muñoz was signed by the Chicago Bears in 2010 and later by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. He had a successful six-year career in the Canadian Football League, playing with the Edmonton Eskimos and Ottawa Redblacks. He served as captain for the Redblacks in 2016 and earned the team's defensive player of the year.

Muñoz graduated from Rutgers with a bachelor's degree in labor management in 2010.

CHARLIE NOONAN DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

A former Rutgers football team captain along the defensive line, Charlie Noonan is in his second season back with the Scarlet Knights as a defensive assistant. Noonan spent 2019 on staff at Lehigh as the Mountain Hawks' linebackers coach and run defensive coordinator.

With the help of Noonan, Lehigh produced the top rushing defense in the Patriot League in 2019. Linebacker Keith Woetzel earned Second Team All-America and first team all-conference accolades for the Mountain Hawks, as he led the Patriot League in tackles (118), sacks (12) and tackles-for-loss (17.5).

Noonan joined Lehigh from Holy Cross, where he spent four seasons (2015-18) as a defensive line coach. During his first season with the Crusaders, Noonan worked with defensive end Dewayne Cameron, who earned First Team All-Patriot League honors twice, as well as a spot on the All-New England First Team.

In his second season at Holy Cross in 2016, defensive end Ryan Smith led the Patriot League with 12 sacks. In 2017, his defense earned 23 sacks for 154 yards and forced 12 fumbles and in 2018, Noonan mentored Teddy Capsis to first team All-Patriot League accolades.

Before his appointment at Holy Cross, Noonan spent two seasons as a graduate assistant at Rutgers from 2013-14. Noonan mentored All-Big Ten selection Kemoko Turay, who led the team with 7.5 sacks during the 2014 campaign. In 2013, RU allowed just 100.8 rushing yards per game, the fourth-best mark in the country.

Noonan also worked at Division III Thiel College (Pa.) in 2012. Competing in the Presidents' Athletic Conference, Thiel's defense finished its season first in the league in both sacks and rushing defense, while finishing in second place in tackles-for-loss and total defense.

In 2011, Noonan served as a volunteer assistant coach at the Haverford School (Pa.), where he worked with the defense.

Noonan earned a bachelor's degree in economics and a master's degree in labor and employment relations from Rutgers in 2010. Noonan was a two-year starter and four-year letterwinner at defensive tackle for the Scarlet Knights under current head coach Greg Schiano from 2006-10 and finished his collegiate career with 72 stops in 47 games played. Noonan signed with the Philadelphia Eagles as an undrafted free agent in 2011.

KEITH BRUNO SPECIAL TEAMS ASSISTANT

Keith Bruno is in his second season as a special teams assistant with Rutgers football. He spent 2019 on the Albright football coaching staff as special teams coordinator and safeties coach.

Bruno returned to Albright, his alma mater, in 2019 for his second stint of coaching after spending two years as the defensive coordinator at St. Lawrence. In 2017, as special teams coordinator, the Lions blocked four kicks.

As a defensive coordinator at St. Lawrence in 2018, the Saints led the Liberty League in sacks and tackles-for-loss. Bruno also developed first team all-league linebacker Liam Murray, and all-league/all-region defensive lineman Tyler Mirabile, along with honorable mention defensive hark Tyler Burns

Bruno was part of a coaching staff that helped lead Albright to a MAC-Centennial Bowl Championship title in 2016, as the Lions posted an 8-3 overall record. As the special teams coordinator, Bruno coached three all-conference players, including two first-team selections. He mentored units that led the conference in numerous categories such as field goals, touchdowns, converted fakes and total kickoff coverage. In 2015, Bruno helped lead Albright to a Middle Atlantic Conference title with a 10-2 mark, coaching a secondary that ranked seventh in the nation in interceptions.

Bruno played on the Lions football team from 2008-12. The free safety posted 43 tackles as a junior and 39 as a senior. Bruno was a member of the 2009 Albright football team that posted a school-record 11 wins and advanced to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Division III playoffs.

Following his playing career at Albright, Bruno moved into the high school coaching ranks at his alma mater Brick Township Memorial in New Jersey, where he coached the linebackers during the 2012 season. Bruno then moved on to McDaniel where he served as an assistant coach working with the defensive backs in 2013 and 2014. Bruno earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from Albright in 2012 and graduated from Brick Memorial High School in 2008.

AARON MILLER SPECIAL TEAMS ASSISTANT

Aaron Miller is in his second season with Rutgers football as a special teams assistant. Miller previously worked at Princeton, where he served as the Tigers' offensive quality control and assistant running backs coach during the 2019 season.

DAMIERE SHAW DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

արարարարարարարարար

Damiere Shaw is in his second season as the director of player development at Rutgers. A native of Chester, Pennsylvania, with experience developing NFL talent, Shaw spent 2019 on the staff at Fordham after serving for two years at Baylor.

As the wide receivers coach at Fordham, Shaw mentored three wideouts to over 600 receiving yards, the only team in the Patriot League to achieve the feat. That included rookie DeQuece Carter, who broke the school record for receptions (53) and receiving yards (723) by a freshman. Overall, the Rams paced the conference in total offense (357.2) and scoring offense (25.0), placing second in passing offense (223.9).

Shaw spent the 2017 and 2018 seasons as an offensive quality control coach for head coach Matt Rhule at Baylor. The job included assisting with coaching the wide receivers, identifying opposing team's coverages and personnel tendencies on game day, and breaking down opposing team's game film during the week. Shaw helped develop Jalen Hurd, a third-round pick of the San Francisco 49ers and the 2018 Big 12 Offensive Newcomer of the Year. He also mentored Denzel Mims, who finished third in school history in touchdowns, fifth in receptions and sixth in receiving yards. The Bears won the 2018 Texas Bowl over Vanderbilt.

Prior to his stint at Baylor, Shaw spent one season as a graduate assistant coach for Temple under Rhule in 2016, assisting with the wide receivers. The Owls won the American Athletic Conference championship that season.

Shaw made the transition from player to coach following an injury as a freshman. He served as a student assistant focusing on wide receivers with the Owls for three seasons from 2013-15. During the tenure, Shaw worked closely with Robby Anderson, who posted the second-most receiving yards in program history, and Keith Kirkwood, both NFL receivers.

Shaw earned a bachelor's degree from Temple in 2016. He is married to the former Miah Shockley and the couple welcomed their son. Justice, in 2020.

MIKE TUFO ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

Mike Tufo is in his second tenure with Rutgers football, serving as an assistant strength and conditioning coach with the Scarlet Knights in 2021. Tufo also worked at RU from 2005-2016 and possesses more than 15 years of strength coaching experience at the collegiate level.

Prior to his return to Rutgers in 2020, Tufo spent three seasons as the head football strength and conditioning coach at Princeton from 2017-19. The Tigers went 26-4 during his three years with the program, which included an undefeated 10-0 mark in 2018.

Tufo previously worked at Rutgers from 2005-16, as he worked his way up to become the associate director of strength and conditioning. Tufo worked with more than 25 Scarlet Knights who went on to sign NFL contracts and was on staff for nine bowl game appearances and six bowl victories.

Tufo served two years as a strength and conditioning graduate assistant at the University of Connecticut from 2003-05. Tufo worked with several Huskie programs, including the 2004 men's and women's basketball national championships squads.

Tufo earned a bachelor's degree in health and physical therapy from The College of New Jersey in 2002 and his master's in kinesiology from UConn in 2005. Tufo was a varsity soccer player during his undergraduate years at TCNJ.

Tufo is a NSCA Strength and Conditioning specialist and is CSCCA Strength and Condition certified. Tufo also set a Guinness World Record for most pull-ups in 24 hours with 5,101.

GAME 1: RUTGERS 38, MICHIGAN STATE 27

Oct. 24, 2020 • East Lansing, Mich. Spartan Stadium

	1	2	3	4	Score
Rutgers (1-0)	14	14	0	10	38

AST LANSING, Mich. – Behind a dominant defensive effort and an opportunistic scoring attack, Rutgers football downed Michigan State, 38-27, on Saturday afternoon in East Lansing to open the 2020 season. The Scarlet Knights – who never trailed in the road matchup and limited the Spartans to just one trip inside the red zone - scored 21 points off seven takeaways to deliver Greg Schiano his first win since returning as head coach.

A staple during Schiano's first tenure "On the Banks," RU's defense flourished against MSU. Rutgers' seven takeaways (six on defense and one on special teams) were the most in a conference game since it joined the Big Ten in 2014 and most overall since 2000. The Scarlet Knights generated 12 tackles-for-loss - which included two sacks from defensive end Mohamed Toure - and picked off Rocky Lombardi twice with interceptions from cornerback Tre Avery and safety Brendon White.

Noah Vedral made his first start at quarterback for Rutgers and finished 18-of-29 with 169 yards and a 14-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Shameen Jones. Vedral scored one of four rushing touchdowns for the Scarlet Knights, as running back Isaih Pacheco (two touchdowns) and quarterback Johnny Langan (one rushing score) also found paydirt to help Rutgers secure its fourth win all time against MSU.

The 11-point win tied for the largest margin of victory on the road in Big Ten action since Rutgers defeated Illinois, 35-24, on Oct. 14, 2017 in Champaign.

PISCATAWAY, N.J. - Rutgers football was edged in a triple-overtime thriller with Michigan, 48-42, on Saturday night at SHI Stadium, presented by RWJBarnabas Health.

Quarterback Noah Vedral threw for a career-high 381 passing yards, eighth-most in a game in program history, with three touchdown passes, including a 61-yard toss to wide receiver Bo Melton. Quarterback Johnny Langan added two rushing scores against the Wolverines, while wide receivers Aron Cruickshank and tight end Jovani Haskins each added receiving scores. It marked the fifth consecutive outing with 20 or more points scored in Big Ten play, matching the Scarlet Knights' output from the previous four seasons combined.

Linebacker Olakunle Fatukasi led the defense with a career-high 17 tackles and two sacks. With his 17 stops, Fatukasi became the first player since Aaron Brady in 1998 to produce 10 or more tackles in five consecutive games. Safety Brendon White also establish a new personal best with 15 tackles, adding a forced fumble.

GAME 6: RUTGERS 37, PURDUE 30

Nov. 28, 2020 • West Lafayette, Ind. Ross-Ade Stadium

WEST LAFAYETTE, Ind. - Rutgers football recorded its second Big Ten Conference road win of the season, downing Purdue, 37-30, on Saturday night in West Lafayette, Indiana. The Scarlet Knights set a Big Ten program record with 26 first downs and produced five touchdowns against the Boilermakers, including two passes from quarterback Artur Sitkowski to wide receiver Shameen Jones, to earn the road victory at Ross-Ade Stadium

Quarterback Johnny Langan also tossed a touchdown pass - a career-long 62-yard connection with running back Kay'Ron Adams - and added a team-high 95 yards on the ground. Running back Aaron Young crossed the goal line for the first time in his career, while wide receiver Aron Cruickshank returned a kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown as RU moved to 2-0 all-time against Purdue.

In a game that featured three lead changes and the Boilermakers up by as much as 10 in the second half. Rutgers used 21 points in the third guarter and churned out a two-quarter, 18-play, 70-yard scoring drive that took nearly 10 minutes off the clock to all but secured the second win for head coach Greg Schiano in his return "On the Banks." The Scarlet Knights possessed the ball for 21:57 in the second half.

PISCATAWAY, N.J. - Playing its ninth game in nine weeks, Rutgers football lost to Nebraska, 28-21, on Friday night at SHI Stadium.

Defensive back Christian Izien was involved in gaining four turnovers, including two interceptions, while wide receiver Aron Cruickshank recorded his second kick return for a touchdown on the season.

2020 NOTES

- RU matched the program high with three Big Ten victories, all on the road. The Scarlet Knights had three Big Ten road victories combined the previous six seasons. Two of the wins came when trailing at halftime, as the team only had two such comeback Big Ten wins previously since joining the conference.
- The Scarlet Knights had 14 players recognized in the All-Big Ten voting, the most for the program since joining the league. The previous high was eight total honorees in 2017. That includes four on the top-three teams in 2020 after totaling six combined the previous six years in the Big Ten and two over the last four seasons.
- One of two teams in the Big Ten to play all nine games and the first time in program history playing nine conference games
- Saw 46 student-athletes earn Academic All-Big Ten honors, the most for the program since joining the conference. Rutgers football posted its highest GPA ever as a program during the spring 2020 semester.

- Rutgers posted a program-best 26.7 points per game in a Big Ten season (previous best 21.2 in 2015). The Scarlet Knights scored at least 20 points in eight games after reaching the 20-plus mark five times the previous four seasons and 12 times in the first 52 Big Ten games. The 26.7 points per game ranked eighth in the Big Ten, improving from No. 14, as the previous best ranking in Big Ten-only games was 11th in 2014.
- Rutgers was the fourth-most improved team in the nation by scoring offense (+13.4 points per game). In addition, the Scarlet Knights scored 81 more points than in 2019 (playing three fewer games), the sixth-best improvement in the nation in total points scored (the five higher team all played 12 games). In addition, RU was the most improved in the Big Ten total touchdowns scored (+12) and offensive touchdowns (+9).
- Rutgers averaged over 300 yards per game in a Big Ten season for the first time since 2015. The increase of 66 yards per game overall was the best improvement among Big Ten teams in 2020. The 3,052 yards of total offense was 1,172 more than the previous year in Big Ten play.

DEFENSE

- Rutgers caused 19 turnovers, most in a season since 2012, and 10 more than were forced in 2019. That included at least one takeaway in eight games, multiple in four games and at least four two times. Helped the team establish a +5 turnover margin, its best in a Big Ten season and only the second time (2015) being on the plus side.
- Rutgers led the Big Ten and ranked No. 11 nationally with 7.8 tackles-for-loss per game.
- Rutgers posted 21 sacks, most in a Big Ten season (previous best was 16 in 2014). An increase of eight from the previous

SPECIAL TEAMS

- Only team in the Big Ten and Power 5, with at least three kick return touchdowns (two kickoff, one punt). One of just four teams nationally to achieve the feat.
- Led the Big Ten and ranked No. 16 nationally with 25.73 yards per kickoff return.
- Reset the school record (for the third-straight season) with a net punt of 42.27, second in the Big Ten and eighth nationally.

RUTGERS FOOTBALL

THE FIRST GAME

Rutgers and Princeton played the first game of intercollegiate football on Nov. 6, 1869, on a plot of ground where the present-day Rutgers gymnasium now stands in New Brunswick, N.J. Rutgers won that first game, 6-4.

The game was played with two teams of 25 men each under rugby-like rules, but like modern football, it was "replete with surprise, strategy, prodigies of determination and physical prowess," to use the words of one of the Rutgers players.

At 3 p.m. on that memorable afternoon, the 50 competitors and about 100 spectators gathered on the field. To distinguish themselves from the bareheaded visitors, 50 Rutgers students, including players, donned scarlet-colored scarves which they converted into turbans.

Events leading up to the game were described by John W. Herbert, Rutgers '72, who was one of the players: "To appreciate this game to the fullest you must know something of its background," Herbert wrote in 1933. "The two colleges were, and still are, of course, about 20 miles apart. The rivalry between them was intense. For years each had striven for possession of an old Revolutionary cannon, making night forays and lugging it back and forth time and again. Not long before the first football game, the canny Princetonians had settled this competition in their own favor by ignominiously sinking the gun in several feet of concrete. In addition to this, I regret to report. Princeton had beaten Rutgers in baseball by the harrowing score of 40-2. Rutgers longed for a chance to square things."

A challenge for the game was issued by Rutgers. Three games were to be played that year. The first, played at New Brunswick, was won by Rutgers. Princeton won the second game. but cries of "over-emphasis" prevented the third game in football's first year when faculties of both institutions protested on the grounds that the games were interfering with student studies. An analytical account of the game appeared in the November, 1869 issue of The Targum, Rutgers' undergraduate

"To describe the varying fortunes of the match, game by game, would be a waste of labor for every game was like the one before," wrote the student reporter. "There was the same headlong running, wild shouting, and frantic kicking.

"To sum up, Princeton had the most muscle, but didn't kick very well, and wanted organization. They evidently don't like to kick the ball on the ground. Our men, on the other hand, though comparatively weak, ran well, and kicked well throughout. But their great point was the organization, for which great praise is due to the captain. The right men were always in the right place '

One of the Princeton players, William Preston Lane, in 1933 contended in a newspaper interview that Rutgers "ran us Princeton men out of town. I never found out why they did that," he related, "But we don't ask any questions. When we saw them coming after us, we ran to the outskirts of New Brunswick and got into our carriages and wagons and went away as fast as we could "

Lane's contention is refuted in The Targum account. "After the match the players had an amicable "feed together," the paper reported. "At 8 o'clock our guests went home, in high good spirits, thirsting to beat us next time, if they can."

Regardless of what actually happened after the first game. football was here to stay. Rutgers got Columbia University started in the grid sport the following season and in a few years most of the colleges and universities in the East were represented on the gridiron

THE HISTORY OF RUTGERS FOOTBALL

Parts of this article were written by John Bruns, former longtime sports writer for the Home News and the Easton Times-Express

1869-1912: The Birthplace of College Football

When Rutgers defeated Princeton in 1869, the setting was quite different than it is today. The game was contested on a field along College Avenue in New Brunswick, There were not tens of thousands of cheering fans in a multi-million dollar stadium. There was no manicured grass field or electronic scoreboard. There was no elaborate athletic equipment or television cameras. But on that fall day in 1869, those students established a tradition of quality football programs, competitiveness and school spirit that continues at Rutgers, the birthplace of intercollegiate football.

Entering its 152nd season in 2021. Rutgers has had many historical moments, outstanding athletes and memorable triumphs over the years.

However, those historic moments were difficult to predict during the early years when intercollegiate football scheduling was inconsistent. For example, Rutgers won six of 10 games in 1882, but played only one game in 1885. Similarly, the Scarlet Knights went 8-6 in 1891, but two years later played only four games. By the early 1900s, scheduling had become more consistent and football became more popular across the country.

The eight wins of 1891 were not matched until Rutgers went 8-1 in 1947 with one of the most successful teams of coach Harvey Harman in the Golden Era immediately following World War II. That team, quarterbacked by Frank Burns, who would later become Rutgers' most successful coach, lost its opener to Columbia and then swept through eight-straight opponents.

1913-1925: 'A Tradition of Success Begins'

PAUL ROBESON

In 1913, coach George Foster Sanford began a tradition of success among Rutgers coaches in their inaugural year by leading his team to a 6-3 mark. He then flirted with two perfect seasons, improving the team to 7-1 in 1915 and 7-1-1 in 1917.

Those two seasons, which featured All-American Paul Robeson, were among Rutgers' best. The Scarlet Knights outscored opponents by an average of 44-3 in 1915 and 33-2 in 1917. Sanford, a member of Rutgers' Hall of Fame, also helped to introduce Rutgers to the New York metropolitan area, playing games at the Polo Grounds against teams like Notre Dame, Nebraska, Louisiana State and West Virginia. A few years later, in 1924, two-time All-America end and fullback Homer Hazel helped coach John Wallace continue the tradition of first-year coaching success, as Rutgers posted a 7-1-1 mark.

1925-1960: Making a Mark on the Collegiate Landscape

Harvey Harman also had a successful first season, going 7-1 in 1938, the year Rutgers dedicated the original Rutgers Stadium. Rutgers won the dedication game, 20-18, over Princeton.

Harman, however, was replaced by former coach Harry Rockafeller during World War II. His tenure included an 8-1 season in 1947 when Rutgers, dominated by WWII veterans, registered a combined record of 27-7 from 1945-48.

When John Steigman coached Rutgers from 1956-59, he brought back the single-wing formation to the Scarlet Knight offense, and led Rutgers to an 8-1 mark in 1958. The only loss of that season, 13-12 to the Quantico Marines, came when All-American tailback Billy Austin had to miss a game due to

1961-1972: RU's First Undefeated Season

Another first-year coach got off to an impressive start when John Bateman went 8-1 in 1960. That campaign was followed by Rutgers' first undefeated season in 1961, when the team went 9-0, capping the season with a fourth-quarter, 25-point comeback win over Columbia. That team included All-American center Alex Kroll, and was ranked 15th nationally. In his 11 seasons, Bateman led Rutgers to 73 wins in 124 games.

1973-1983: The Burns Era & 1976

In 1973, Frank Burns took the reins of Rutgers football and became the most successful Rutgers coach ever by building teams recognized for fundamentals and defense. Burns himself was also known as a fierce linebacker and won the Most Valuable Player Award in the 1949 College All-Star game, when he made 17 tackles against the New York Giants. The Burns' defenses were led by linebackers Ed Steward, Jim Hughes, Jim Dumont and defensive end Nate Toran, Burns' first team went 6-5, while running back "JJ" Jennings rushed for 1,353 yards (third in Rutgers history) and 21 touchdowns (second).

Over the next five seasons, Burns' teams won at least seven games each season, including a five-season stretch from 1975-79 when Rutgers' winning percentage was .803 with a record of 45-11. The jewel in the crown of Burns' tenure as Rutgers' coach was the 1976 season, when the team was perfect at 11-0, establishing the best season ever at Rutgers. During Burns' 11 seasons at Rutgers, the Scarlet Knights won nearly twothirds of their games (78-44). He also took Rutgers to its first bowl appearance - the Garden State Bowl - at Giants Stadium against Arizona State in 1978.

Doubtless, the biggest win of the Burns era was the 13-7 upset of Tennessee on November 3, 1979 in Knoxville. Burns called it "the greatest of my coaching career."

The following year, 1980, Rutgers had one of its great "nearmisses" of its long history when the Scarlet bowed, 17-13, to a highly-favored Alabama team coached by Bear Bryant at Giants Stadium. The gracious Bryant said, "We didn't beat Rutgers. All I can say is we won."

1984-1989: Memorable Upsets

In 1984 when Dick Anderson was named head coach, a renewed commitment to football at Rutgers was backed by a $3 million state-funded package. Those funds helped finance the artificial surface practice fields, the practice "Bubble" and the Hale Center, which includes locker rooms, offices, a weighttraining area and medical facilities for the football team.

Anderson won seven of 10 games in his inaugural season. Other highlights of his years at Rutgers include upset wins over such nationally-ranked teams as Penn State and Michigan State, and a nationally-televised victory over Northwestern in the program's 1,000th game. Anderson's teams produced some of the most exciting players in Rutgers history, including record-breaking passer Scott Erney, career tackles leader Tyronne Stowe (533 from 1983-86) and football/baseball star Eric Young. Anderson's last game at Rutgers was a memorable one. It was the 1989 Emerald Isle Classic versus Pittsburgh in Dublin, Ireland, the first time a Rutgers team played overseas.

1990-1999: BIG EAST, Big Games

Doug Graber became the Scarlet Knights' 23rd coach in 1990 and placed an emphasis on recruiting the best talent in the state of New Jersey. His first recruiting class included three first team all-state selections and two second-team All-State selections among the 12 recruits from New Jersey.

Another major boost for Rutgers came in 1991 when Rutgers joined the Big East Conference and won its first league game over Boston College, 20-13. The team went 13-9 in its first two years in the league, including a 4-2 mark in 1992.

The 1994 season celebrated not only the 125 years of college football, but also the return of the newly-renovated and expanded Rutgers Stadium. The return was a welcomed one. Rutgers teams have been at their best at the stadium, compiling a 237-120-4 (.662) record there since 1938. The new stadium has been quite a different setting than that of the first college football game played 130 years ago, as the Scarlet Knights are playing for their own place in history as they continue the college football tradition that was born "On the Banks of the Old Raritan."

2000-2005: Schiano's Arrival

1998 Big East Coach of the Year Terry Shea concluded his tenure in 2000, as the Scarlet Knights opted to take the program in a different direction for the 2001 season. On Dec. 1, 2000, Director of Athletics Bob Mulcahy introduced the newest coach in the storied history of Rutgers football, Greg Schiano.

Schiano's first three recruiting classes rejuvenated the football program. In 2003, the team closed strong, upsetting Syracuse, 24-7, in the season finale. In 2004, before the largest crowd ever at the time at Rutgers Stadium (42,612), the Scarlet Knights defeated Michigan State, 19-14.

In 2005, Schiano coached Rutgers to its best record in over a decade, 7-5, and its first bowl bid since 1978. In a Wild West shootout staged at Chase Field in Phoenix, Rutgers fell just short, losing to Arizona State, 45-40, at the Insight Bowl Dec. 27.

2006: Pandemonium in Piscataway

In 2006, Schiano was named the National Coach of the Year and Big East Coach of the Year, as the Scarlet Knights earned their first national top-10 ranking in 2006 and won 11 games for the second time in school history. The campaign included a thrilling win 28-25 over No. 3/4 Louisville in front of a Thursday night national audience on ESPN. The comeback victory, with RU overcoming an 18-point deficit, became one of the turning points in modern Rutgers history as fans stormed the field to ignite "Pandemonium in Piscataway." Rutgers ended the season with a ranking of No. 12 in the national polls.

The success Rutgers achieved on the field was something Schiano envisioned from the first day he became the leader of the Scarlet Knights. At his introductory press conference, Schiano stated, "We're going to win at Rutgers and we're going to do it the right way." The 2006 season was complete with a convincing 37-10 victory over Kansas State in the Texas Bowl, the first bowl championship in school history. In addition, Brian Leonard was the recipient of the Draddy Trophy, known as the Academic Heisman.

2007-11: Sustained Success

The program won eight more games in 2007, including the highest ranked win in program history with a 30-27 victory over No. 2 USF. The season concluded with a dominating 52-30 victory over Ball State at the International Bowl in Toronto. Ray Rice ran for a school-record 280 rushing yards on the day to bring his career total to 4,926, a program high. An All-America pick and Heisman Trophy candidate, the running back also set the Scarlet Knight standards for attempts (910), touchdowns (49) and 100-yard games (25).

The 2008 campaign for the Scarlet Knights started slowly, but the program relied on a strong foundation built by Schiano and together as a family, Rutgers turned in seven consecutive victories to close out the season - culminating in a 29-23 victory over NC State in the PapaJohns.com Bowl. In 2009, the Scarlet Knights saw a number of milestones set en route to a record of 9-4, including a 45-24 victory over UCF in the St. Petershurg Rowl

Prior to Schiano's arrival at Rutgers, the Scarlet Knights had never fielded a receiver who had gained 1,000 yards in a season. In 2009. Tim Brown became the fourth during his tenure to eclipse the mark. Brown also became the school's all-time leader in receiving touchdowns, passing RU's initial first round draft pick Kenny Britt, RU had two first-round picks in 2010. with Anthony Davis being the highest pick in program history at No. 11 by the San Francisco 49ers. Devin McCourty was selected at No. 27 by the New England Patriots.

While the results on the field did not favor Rutgers in 2010. the world was introduced to Eric LeGrand. The junior defensive tackle suffered a spinal cord injury at MetLife Stadium Oct. 16 against Army, but he did not let the condition bring him down. LeGrand has become a public figure and has raised countless dollars towards spinal cord research. He became the first Scarlet Knight in the 144 years of the football program to have his number retired during halftime of the Sept. 14, 2013 game against Eastern Michigan.

Rutgers returned to a bowl game in 2011 with a trip to the New Era Pinstripe Bowl. It was the second game of the season for the team at Yankee Stadium. The Scarlet Knights defeated Army during the regular season before beating lowa State in the bowl game. Wide receiver Mohamed Sanu set the school record with 115 receptions on the season and was drafted in the third round of the NFL Draft by the Cincinnati Bengals.

2012: Big East Co-Champions

Following the season, head coach Greg Schiano took the head coaching job with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers to end an 11-year tenure. Kyle Flood, who joined the program in 2005, was promoted from the staff to the lead position several days later.

Flood made an immediate impact on the Rutgers program with a successful first season, as he led the school to its first Big East Championship in 2012, ending with a 9-4 record and 5-2 record in the league. Flood was named the Big East Coach of the Year. Flood's nine regular season victories were the most by any first-year coach in Rutgers history, as eight players garnered All-Big East honors. Khaseem Greene totaled 136 tackles to earn Big East Defensive Player of the Year for the second consecutive season, in addition to All-America status. The defensive unit was among the best in school history, ranking fourth nationally in scoring defense, tied for ninth in turnovers gained and 10th in total defense.

The year culminated with a trip to the Russell Athletic Bowl in Orlando to face Virginia Tech. In the offseason, Rutgers had 12 players signed by NFL teams, with a school-record seven selected in the NFL Draft.

Rutgers came out of the gates in 2013 with a 4-1 start through September. Following a 52-51 loss in overtime at Fresno State, RU rattled off four straight wins. The winning streak was highlighted by a comeback win over Arkansas in the first visit by an SEC team to Piscataway. In its first American Athletic Conference game, Rutgers won in triple overtime at SMU, 55-52. Other conference victories included a late fourth quarter win with the hurry-up offense versus Temple and a postseason-clinching performance on Senior Night against USF. The 2013 New Era Pinstripe Bowl was the eighth bowl trip in nine years for Rutgers. The Scarlet Knights took on a ranked Notre Dame team inside a sold-out Yankee Stadium.

2014-19: Big Ten - Our New Home

On July 1, 2014, Rutgers officially joined the Big Ten Conference to usher in a new era in its deep and storied history. Support for the program reached new levels for the Big Ten opener, as a stadium-record 53,774 fans packed High Point Solutions Stadium for a game against Penn State. The Scarlet Knights won their first Big Ten game Oct. 4 over Michigan, with Kemoko Turay leaping to block a potential go-ahead field goal to seal the win and set off a storming of the field. The first road win in conference play came at Maryland after RU erased a 35-10 deficit to win 41-38 in the biggest comeback in school history, which would be matched a year later at Indiana. Senior quarterback Gary Nova threw for 347 yards on a career-best 28 completions in the 2014 win versus the Terrapins, ending his career as the all-time touchdown passing leader (73).

The first year in the Big Ten would be capped off with a convincing 40-21 win over North Carolina in the Quick Lane Bowl, hosted by the Detroit Lions. The Scarlet Knights went 8-5 and earned the Lambert-Meadowlands Trophy, emblematic of the too team in the East in the Bowl Subdivision.

In the second year in the Big Ten, Leonte Carroo closed his time as a Scarlet Knight with 10 receiving touchdowns to raise his school-record total to 29 over 31 games at the position. He averaged a score once every 4.2 receptions over his career, racking up 2,373 yards to join the list of standout wide receivers.

THE BIRTHPLACE OF COLLEGE FOOTBALL

On Dec. 7, 2015, Chris Ash took over the program as the Scarlet Knights continued to establish a presence in the Big Ten and nationally. The program added a number of facility upgrades during his tenure, including the Marco Battaglia Football Practice Complex and the Brown Family Football Locker Room.

Culminating a year-long celebration of the 150th anniversary of the first college football game, Rutgers marked the occasion on Nov. 6, 2019 with the Ringing of the Bells at Old Queens and the unveiling of a new plaque at the site celebrating its 6-4 win over Princeton.

2020: Welcome Back, Coach Schiano

With a change of leadership announced during the 2019 season, Rutgers announced the return of Schiano as head football coach on Dec. 3, 2019. Schiano had three nine-win campaigns and coached 16 Rutgers All-America selections during his first tenure, inlcuding a 56-33 mark in his last seven seasons.

The Scarlet Knights improved immediately during Schiano's first season back, as it matched its program high with three Big Ten victories during the pandemic-shortened 2020 campaign. Rutgers had 14 players recognized in the All-Big Ten voting, the most for the program since joining the league. In addition, RU posted a team-best 26.7 points per game in a Big Ten season, a gain of 13.4 points per game from the previous season for the fourth-best improvement nationally.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

HOMER HAZEL (CLASS OF 1951)

He parted his dark hair down the middle, in the fashion of the day, and his deep-set eyes glowed with a competitive fire. Homer Hazel, Rutgers' first Hall of Famer, was, without doubt, the most versatile player the Scarlet ever produced. A natural athlete, Hazel excelled in various sports and was most successful as a track and field star. His speed and quickness served him well, for he once recovered his own kickoff in the enemy end zone for a touchdown. Homer led Rutgers to identical 7-1-1 records in his final two seasons, earning All-America laurels in each. He was an end in 1923, when the only Scarlet loss was to West Virginia (27-7). He had Rutgers on the way to an unbeaten finish in 1924 - this time as a hard-hitting fullback - when Bucknell untracked the Scarlet in the final game of the season, 12-7. During the 1924 campaign, Homer Hazel established school records for most points after a touchdown and longest completed pass. He could do it all. Carrying 226 pounds over a 5-foot-11 frame, Homer lettered in football, basketball, baseball and track at Rutgers. He later served as Athletic Director, football and basketball coach at the University of Mississippi for more than five years. He was a golf pro for four years, and a labor relations manager for more than 20 years. Hazel won his first letter in football at Rutgers in 1916. He left school because of a lack of funds. Hazel worked at various jobs and, at age 28, played football again at Rutgers. Walter Camp named him All-America end in 1923, All-America fullback in 1924. Hazel was born June 2, 1895, and died February 3, 1968.

GEORGE LITTLE (CLASS OF 1955)

A graduate of Ohio Wesleyan, George Little opened his coaching career at the University of Cincinnati and produced a two-year record of 10-8-0 before moving up the road to Oxford, Ohio, home of the Miami Redskins, in 1916. There, Little brought the Redskins their first Conference Championship and a 7-0-1 mark. After service in World War I, Little returned to Miami and directed the Red and White to yet another league crown and a three-year post-war record of 20-3-1. He also coached the Miami basketball and track teams, claiming a conference crown in the latter sport. The 1922 and 1923 seasons found Little at Michigan under head coach Fielding Yost, the man he replaced in 1924. That year, Little's Wolverines were 6-2. The next season, Little was in Wisconsin as the new Athletic Director and head coach of the Badgers, and he led his charges to a two-year mark of 11-3-2. His teams displayed imagination and strength on offense, a unique ruggedness on defense. Little wound up his collegiate career as the Athletic Director at Rutgers, and then served as executive secretary of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame.

GEORGE FOSTER SANFORD (CLASS OF 1971)

At the entrance to Rutgers Stadium, inscribed upon a bronze plaque, is a tribute to George Sanford. It was financed and installed by his players, the men "...he inspired to deeds beyond themselves." Undoubtedly, Sanford was an inspirational leader of men, a gentleman who excelled as both player and coach. Sanford played center on the 1891 and 1892 Yale teams which held each of their 26 opponents scoreless. Though he was never chosen to an All-America team, a 1927 poll named him the all-time Yale center. Sanford began his coaching career at Columbia (1899-1901), called in to revive the football program which had been abandoned after the 1891 campaign. His 1899 team defeated Yale for the first time ever, and it was at Columbia that Sanford developed the famous "Flying Hurdle Play" which saw Harold Weekes catapulted over the line of scrimmage. Moving to Rutgers (1913-23), Sanford had marked success as his club rolled to a 56-32-5 record. He was hailed as a "miracle worker" in 1917, after his Rutgers team beat the heavily-favored Newport Naval Reserve All-Stars, 14-0. Between his teams at Columbia and Rutgers, Sanford devoted his energy toward a successful insurance brokerage business

HARVEY HARMAN (CLASS OF 1981)

Few men loved the game with the fervor of Harvey Harman, a huge man with a grand smile and a fierce dedication to the sport. A former president of the American Football Coaches Association, Harman received that group's Amos Alonzo Stagg Award, symbolic of outstanding service to the profession. It was not surprising that Harman achieved such acclaim, for he learned his football lessons from two of the game's mentors - Glenn "Pop" Warner and Jock Sutherland - while at Pittsburgh. Harman was a starting tackle for the Panthers before taking his first coaching assignment at Haverford. From there he moved on to Sewanee (the University of the South), Pennsylvania and Rutgers. It was at Rutgers that he had his greatest success, directing the Scarlet Knights to a 26-7-1 record before interrupting his career to serve in the U.S. Navy during World War II. Harman returned to Rutgers after the war and led the Scarlet Knights for another 10 seasons before accepting a position as Executive Director of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame, Inc. In that capacity, Harman became known as the goodwill ambassador for football, continuing to serve the game until his death in 1969. His career record lists a slate of 140-104-7.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

PAUL ROBESON (CLASS OF 1995)

Paul Robeson played four years for the famous coach, G. Foster Sanford. Rutgers had a 22-6-3 record in that time. In 31 games, Rutgers scored 941 points to opponents' 191. Robeson was a powerful contributor to that record. Robeson was a two-time All-America end. Frank Menke named him All-America in 1917 and 1918. Walter Camp picked him in 1918. (Camp did not name an All-America team in 1917.) Following college, Robeson played three years as a pro - 1920 with Hammond, 1921 with Akron and 1922 with Milwaukee - in the American Professional Football League. He obtained his law degree in 1923. At Rutgers, Robeson was elected to Phi Beta Kappa and was valedictorian of the class of 1919. He won the college oratorical contest fourstraight years and gave the commencement address at graduation. Robeson won 12 letters in four sports - four in football, three each in basketball and baseball, and two in track. He stood 6-3 in height and his weight was listed at 191 in early years, at 215 his senior season. This man of many talents became an actor, singer and lecturer. He was on Broadway and in the movies. His rich basso made his signature song "Ol' Man River" a classic. He starred in plays, such as "The Emperor Jones," "Othello," "Showboat," as well as many others, in the U.S., Europe and Africa, In 1925 he made a recording that sold 55,000 copies in four months, In 1972 he received the Whitney Young Memorial Award. Ebony Magazine called him "one of the 10 most important black men in American history." Paul Robeson was born April 9, 1898, in Princeton, N.J. His father, Rev. William Robeson, had escaped slavery in 1860 in North Carolina at age 15. His mother, Maria Bustill, was a teacher. When Paul was a high school senior, he won the statewide academic test and received a scholarship to Rutgers. In 1915, he was the third African-American to enter Rutgers and the first to play football. He died January 23, 1976. After his tenure at Rutgers, he became an accomplished actor, singer and lecturer, and was commemorated on a US postal stamp.

ALEX KROLL (CLASS OF 1997)

Alex Kroll, a consensus All-American center on Rutgers' first undefeated football team in 1961, is the Scarlet Knights' sixth inductee into the College Football Hall of Fame, as a part of the Class of 1997. Kroll, a 6-2, 228-pound center and linebacker, was a major force in Rutgers compiling a 17-1 record in his two years of play "On the Banks." In 1960, the Knights, under coach John Bateman, were 8-1 and followed up with the school's first undefeated campaign, going 9-0 in 1961. Team captain of the lauded 1961 squad. Kroll was a two-time first-team All-FCAC choice and won first-team All-America honors from the Associated Press, United Press International, Newspaper Enterprise Association, Look, and the American Football Coaches Association. Known as a "coach on the field," he was credited with making the quarterback sneak an offensive weapon as Rutgers scored seven touchdowns on that play in 1961 with Kroll clearing the way into the end zone for the signal-caller. He was also a first-team All-East choice by the AP in 1961 and played in the North-South game and the Senior Bowl. In 1960, he was an honorable mention All-American. Following his senior season, he was a second-round draft pick of the New York Titans, playing for one season in 1962. Kroll earned a BA in English Literature in 1962 and was a Henry Rutgers Scholar with a perfect grade point average in his major. He received a National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame Post-Graduate Scholarship in 1961. In 1986, he was awarded the Silver Anniversary Award from the National Collegiate Athletic Association for his collegiate achievements. Immediately following his last game with the Titans, he joined the workforce at Young & Rubicam, the world's largest independent advertising agency, as a copywriter. After a succession of writing and supervisory jobs in the creative department, he was named executive vice president and worldwide creative director in 1970. He was named president and chief operating officer in 1982 and, four years later, Kroll became chairman of Young & Rubicam. He is retired but still serves as Chairman Emeritus of Young & Rubicam.

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. - In its first postseason action in program history, Rutgers faced Arizona State at Giants Stadium in the inaugural Garden State Bowl in 1978. The Scarlet Knights pulled ahead in the first half on a touchdown by David Dorn and field goal from Kennan Startzell to take a 10-0 lead. However, the Sun Devils closed the gap just before the end of the first half when Mark Malone found Bob Weathers in the end zone. In the third quarter, Arizona State claimed the lead with two Malone touchdown passes and in the final quarter added another score with a rushing touchdown to make the score 28-10. Ted Blackwell brought the Scarlet Knights to within 10 points with his five-yard rushing touchdown and successful two-point conversion. Rutgers had a final chance to take over the game when an offside kick came bouncing its way, but an offside flag on the kickoff erased the Scarlet Knights' good fortune. Arizona State tacked on two touchdowns to secure the 34-18 victory.

PHOENIX - In a Wild West shootout staged at Phoenix's Chase Stadium, Rutgers fell just short of the program's first bowl victory, losing to Arizona State, 45-40, at the Insight Bowl. RU scored the game's first touchdown on a pass from Ryan Hart to Clark Harris, but ASU quickly responded with a TD of its own, evening the game at 7-7. Both teams traded a number of scores, but back-to-back touchdowns in the fourth quarter helped ASU to a 45-33 lead and the eventual victory. Rutgers engineered a 63-yard touchdown drive in the final 51 seconds, but it was not enough as the Sun Devils held on for the 45-40 win.

HOUSTON - Rutgers' most memorable season ended with another milestone victory. Ray Rice rushed for 170 yards and a touchdown and Tim Brown caught two touchdown passes, and the 16th-ranked Scarlet Knights won a bowl game for the first time, beating Kansas State in the Texas Bowl, 37-10. Linebacker Quintero Frierson returned an interception 27 yards for a touchdown on the first play from scrimmage of the second half and Rutgers cruised from there, earning an 11th victory for the second time in the school's history. Rice was named the game's Most Valuable Player after topping 100 yards for the 10th time this season and the 15th time in 25 career games. The 5-foot-9, 195-pound sophomore went over 150 yards for the fifth time this season. The Scarlet Knights' seventh-ranked defense manhandled Kansas State's offense, holding the Wildcats to 160 total yards and six first downs. Freshman quarterback Josh Freeman finished 10-for-21 for 124 yards with two interceptions. Kansas State mustered only 94 yards after Frierson's return of Freeman's first interception put Rutgers up 24-10 only 33 seconds out of halftime.

TORONTO - In its third-consecutive bowl game, Rutgers pulled off another program milestone with its second-straight postseason victory as the Scarlet Knights defeated Ball State, 52-30. Ray Rice had one of the finest individual outings in college football history, rushing for a career-high 280 yards and four touchdowns en route to being named the International Bowl's Most Valuable Player, his second-consecutive MVP honor in a bowl game. Rice's 280 yards were the third-most rushing yards in NCAA bowl history. He entered the game with 1,732 yards on the ground and ended his season with 2,012 yards rushing to become the 13th player in NCAA history to amass more than 2,000 yards. The rushing total also set a Big East and school single-season record. The 52 points scored were the most in Rutgers' bowl history. Including both individual and team marks. RU set a total of nine howl records at the International Bowl was Teel, who passed for 319 yards and two touchdowns, including a 42-yard scoring toss to Kenny Britt to give the Scarlet Knights the lead for good in the fourth quarter. Teel's pass to Britt with 8:30 to play proved to be the winning touchdown. Britt, a third-team All-American, made a juggling catch as he crossed the goal line and finished with six catches for 119 yards. Teel, a senior, was the game's most valuable player. He ended his career on a seven-game winning streak. NC State held a 17-6 halftime edge, led by quarterback Russell Wilson who was 11-for-23 for 186 yards and a score. But Wilson left the game with a strained knee late in the first half and did not return. The Scarlet Knights scored 10 consecutive points in the third guarter on a 31-vard field goal by San San Te and an 11-vard pass from Teel to Tiguan Underwood. Rutgers took a 19-17 lead with 13:31 to play on a 28-yard field by Te after a 10-play 70-vard drive. The Wolfpack came right back as reserve quarterback Daniel Evans drove them 64 yards in eight plays and hit Anthony Hill with a 16-yard touchdown pass to give NC State a 23-19 lead. But it was only two plays later when Teel hit Britt for the go-ahead score.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. - Rutgers capped off its fifth-straight bowl appearance with its fourth-consecutive bowl victory, defeating Central Florida, 45-24, in the 2009 St. Petersburg Bowl at Tropicana Field. The Scarlet Knights showed a great display of balance in all three phases of the game, recording touchdowns on offensive, defensive and special teams. RU ended the night with two rushing touchdowns, two passing touchdowns, one interception and one kickoff returned for scores. Rutgers gained 380 yards of total offense behind a career passing day from freshman quarterback Tom Savage who completed 14-of-27 passes for 294 yards and two touchdowns. Fellow true freshman Mohamed Sanu also enjoyed a career-best evening as he accounted for three of RU's five touchdowns. Sanu had 13 carries for 41 yards and a pair of touchdowns, in addition to catching four passes for 97 yards and a touchdown. For his performance Sanu was awarded the Most Outstanding Player trophy, joining past bowl honorees Ray Rice (2006 Texas Bowl, 2008 International Bowl) and Mike Teel (2008 PapaJohns.com Bowl).

BRONX, N.Y. - Chas Dodd hit Brandon Coleman for an 86-yard touchdown pass late in the fourth guarter and Jawan Jamison ran for two scores to lead Rutgers over Iowa State, 27-13, in the New Era Pinstripe Bowl. The Scarlet Knights ran their bowl winning streak to five and improved to 2-0 this season at Yankee Stadium, where they beat Army earlier in the season. Rutgers, which played in one bowl game before 2005, is 5-1 in the postseason since that season. The Cyclones finished the season on a three-game losing streak, their last win coming on Nov. 18 in Ames, Iowa, when they pulled off the biggest upset of the season against No. 2 Oklahoma State. In this game, Steele Jantz relieved Barnett in the second quarter and helped pull the Cyclones within 20-13 in the fourth on Jeff Woody's 20-yard touchdown run with 10:00 left. After an exchange of punts left Rutgers deep in its own end, Dodd went deep to Coleman. The 6-foot-6 redshirt freshman went over 5-7 cornerback Jeremy Reeves, then outran the corner to the end zone to make it 27-13 with 5:47 left. It was Coleman's only catch, but it turned out to be the play of the game, Jamison, another redshirt freshman giving Rutgers fans hope for more bowls to come, finished with 131 vards on 27 carries.

ORLANDO - Rutgers saw its 2012 season come to an end with a 13-10 overtime loss to Virginia Tech in the Russell Athletic Bowl in Orlando. The loss ended the Scarlet Knights' bowl win streak at five, which had previously been the longest active streak in the nation. In the 15th meeting between the two squads, Rutgers held a 10-0 lead heading into the fourth quarter. The Scarlet Knights scored first on a ball that was snapped over Virginia Tech quarterback Logan Thomas and recovered in the end zone by Rutgers linebacker Khaseem Greene on the opening drive. An RU field goal by Nick Borgese late in the opening quarter would be the final points until the last stanza. In the fourth, the Hokies were able to tie it up. In the first overtime possession, the Hokies settled for a 22-yard field goal to take a 13-10 lead. Rutgers had a possession to answer, but after going three-and-out, Borgese missed wide-right on a 42-yard field goal attempt to end the game. Rutgers finished the year 9-4 and earned a share of the school's first Big East Championship.

BRONX, N.Y. - A 47-vard field goal by Kyle Federico brought Rutgers within three with less than nine minutes remaining, but 10 unanswered points by Notre Dame iced the contest, as the Irish defeated the Scarlet Knights, 29-16, in the 2013 Pinstripe Bowl at Yankee Stadium. It was the eighth bowl trip in nine seasons for Rutgers. A Pinstripe Bowl record crowd of 47,122 watched a back-and-forth affair for the majority of the contest, with neither team leading by more than one possession until late in the fourth quarter. Brandon Coleman led RU in receiving with two catches for 65 yards and a touchdown, while Paul James logged 48 yards on 10 rushing attempts. Coleman's touchdown late in the first quarter was the 20th of his career, tying him for the school record. Federico converted all three of his field goal attempts.

DETROIT - In control from the outset, Rutgers thoroughly dominated North Carolina, 40-21, in the Quick Lane Bowl at Ford Field, turning in one of its stronger performances of the year to finish the 2014 campaign at 8-5. Quarterback Gary Nova threw two touchdown passes, freshmen running backs Josh Hicks and Robert Martin proved to be a dynamic 1-2 punch in the running game, with each topping 100 yards rushing, and the Scarlet Knights' defense quieted the most productive offense in North Carolina history for all but the final 6:45 of the game. The Scarlet Knights jumped out to a 23-0 lead at halftime, sparked by a 34-yard touchdown pass from Nova to Andre Patton on the first drive of the game. Hicks and Martin both added rushing scores to pad the lead, with Kyle Federico connecting from 19 yards away with 11 seconds left in the second quarter. Nova, who finished 9-of-20 for 184 yards, pushed the Scarlet Knights' 23-0 halftime lead to 30-7 with his second touchdown pass - this one a 34yard strike to Andrew Turzilli - with 7:33 left in the third quarter. The advantage grew to 37-7 on Martin's 28-yard touchdown run with 14:11 to play. Federico tacked on a 31-yard field goal with 10:04 remaining to make it 40-7. Martin and Hicks joined Ray Rice (three times) and Jawan Jamison as the only Rutgers backs to rush for 100 yards in a bowl game. Martin (19 carries for 100 yards and two touchdowns) and Hicks (202 yards and one touchdown on 19 carries) also joined Rice as the only true freshmen to reach 100 in a bowl for the Scarlet Knights. Hicks was named MVP of the game for his efforts. The rushing totals for both Martin and Hicks were career highs, with Rutgers' 340 rushing yards overall the most in program history in a bowl game and the highest total of the season.

JONATHAN HOLLOWAY PRESIDENT OF RUTGERS UNIVERSITY

Jonathan Holloway, a U.S. historian, took office as the 21st president of Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey, on July 1, 2020. He also serves as a University Professor and Distinguished Professor.

Prior to accepting the presidency of Rutgers, Dr. Holloway was provost of Northwestern University from 2017 to 2020 and a member of the faculty of Yale University from 1999 to 2017. At Yale, he served as Dean of Yale College and the Edmund S. Morgan Professor of African American Studies. History, and American Studies.

As Northwestern University's chief academic officer, Dr. Holloway supervised the university's educational policies and academic priorities, oversaw preparation of the university's annual budget, acted on faculty appointments and promotions, and directed the allocation of resources and space to academic units

President Holloway's scholarly work specializes in post-emancipation U.S. history with a focus on social and intellectual

He is the author of The Cause of Freedom: A Concise History of African Americans (Oxford University Press, February 2021) as well as Confronting the Veil: Abram Harris Jr., E. Franklin Frazier, and Ralph Bunche, 1919-1941 (2002), and Jim Crow Wisdom: Memory and Identity in Black America Since 1940 (2013). the latter two published by the University of North Carolina Press. He edited Ralph Bunche's A Brief and Tentative Analysis of Negro Leadership (New York University Press, 2005) and coedited Black Scholars on the Line: Race, Social Science, and American Thought in the Twentieth Century (Notre Dame University Press, 2007). He wrote the introduction for the 2015 edition of W.E.B. Du Bois's Souls of Black Folk (Yale University Press), and is working on a new book, A History of Absence: Race and the Making of the Modern World.

Dr. Holloway, who began his academic career at the University of California, San Diego, received a bachelor's degree with honors in American studies from Stanford University and a Ph.D. in history from Yale University.

He serves on boards of the Smithsonian's National Museum of African American History and Culture, Andrew W. Mellon Foundation, the University Research Association, and the Academic Leadership Institute, and is a Fellow of the Council on Foreign Relations. He previously served on the Executive Committee of the Organization of American Historians and the boards of the Chicago Botanic Garden, Illinois Humanities, the National Humanities Alliance, and the Society for United States Intellectual History. In April 2020, New Jersey Governor Phil Murphy appointed him to the Governor's Restart and Recovery Commission, and in May 2020, New Jersey Assembly Speaker Craig Coughlin appointed him to his Economic Advi-

Dr. Holloway is an elected member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and the Society of American Historians.

He is married to Aisling Colón. They have a daughter, Emerson, and son, Ellison,

PRESIDENT HOLLOWAY

UNIVERSITY ADMINISTRATION (2021-22)

Rutgers' unique history as a colonial college, a land-grant institution, and a state university helped shape its current governance structure. The Board of Governors, created by state law in 1956, is the chief governing body of the university.

The Board of Trustees, a governing body since the university's founding in 1766, acts in an advisory capacity to the Board of Governors and has certain fiduciary responsibilities. Rutgers' president implements board policies with the help and advice of senior administrators and other members of the university community.

PAT HOBBS DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

A New Jersey native with more than 25 years of leadership experience in higher education and public service, Pat Hobbs enters his seventh year as the Director of Athletics at Rutgers University. Outlined in "The Relentless Pursuit of Excellence," a strategic vision for Rutgers Athletics has taken course under Hobbs with a clearly defined core purpose, values and priorities

Navigating the unprecedented challenges of the COVID-19 global pandemic tested the mettle for the entire Rutgers athletic department. The grit and determination showed throughout, from a dedicated medical team working tirelessly to institute healthy practices and keep the Scarlet Knights in competition, to support staff who rose to the occasion ensuring a well-functioning campus.

Through the ups and downs, the Scarlet Knights achieved success on all fronts, reaching record heights athletically and academically to move another step closer to Hobbs' ultimate vision to write the "next great chapter in Rutgers Athletics history"

In a season where competitions were largely scheduled against Big Ten opponents due to the pandemic, the Scarlet Knights posted their best conference winning percentage since joining the league in 2014. Rutgers had eight programs ranked during the 2020-21 season and six teams advance to NCAA postseason play. RU also had four sports with individual competitors in their respective NCAA Championships.

Men's basketball punched its ticket to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in 30 years, while women's basketball made its 26th NCAA Tournament as a program. Women's soccer earned its ninth-straight bid to the NCAA Tournament, while the men's and women's lacrosse programs each qualified for postseason play. The men's team advanced to the quarterfinals and the women's squad competed in the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1999. Rowing also made its second-straight NCAA Championships, posting its highest finish in program history (seventh).

Wrestling had five Scarlet Knights advance to the NCAA Tournament, including two championship semifinalists. Gymnastics sent a representative to the national meet for the third time in program history. Track and field qualified 12 Scarlet Knights in 10 events for the NCAA East Regional and men's golf sent its first representative since 2005 to compete in the NCAA Regional.

The success of the 2020-21 season led to Rutgers earning a 60th-place showing in the final Learfield Director's Cup, the programs second-best finish in school history and highest mark since the 2006-07 season.

A harbinger of things to come for the men's basketball program could be seen during the 2019-20 season as the Scarlet Knights posted their first 20-win season in 37 years and a ranking in the Top-25 poll for the first time in 41 years. Men's basketball sat on the cusp of earning its first NCAA Tournament berth since 1991 before the shutdown of March Madness due to the pandemic. A record 10 sold-out games at the RAC in 2019-20 are evidence of the energy and excitement for the program under head coarb Steve Pikiell.

R

National Championship banners were hoisted to the rafters during Hobbs' tenure with All-American wrestlers Anthony Ashnault and Nick Suriano claiming the first NCAA individual national titles in program history. The pair led a number of NCAA postseason trips in 2018-19. Women's basketball posted a 22-10 record and made its 25th NCAA Tournament berth, while women's soccer garnered its seventh straight NCAA bid. Then-No. 11 field hockey qualified for its first NCAA Tournament since 1986, and rowing, nationally ranked for the first time in program history, placed 11th at NCAA Championships. In addition, softball competed in the National Invitational Softball Championship, its first non-conference postseason tournament since 1996. Athletics also celebrated its first ever B1G Ten Conference Player of the Year with Chris Gotterup being named for Men's Golf.

Success in the classroom is a hallmark of Rutgers Athletics, ranking above the average APR rate in the NCAA. For the fourth-straight year, the Scarlet Knights achieved a multiyear score of 990 or better and nine programs either tied or set records in multiyear APR rate in 2018-19. A school-record 376 student-athletes were named to Academic All-Big Ten teams, while for the sixth-straight school year, RU set a department record with 188 Scarlet Knights earning Big Ten Distinguished Scholar acrollades in 2020-21

The development of capital projects to support these studentathletes is at the forefront of Hobbs' charge to further the mission of the only Power Five conference program located in the nation's largest media market.

The Gary and Barbara Rodkin Academic Success Center made its grand opening and serves as home to all student-athletes for their academic pursuits. The state-of-the-art facility provides a range of resources, including academic advising, learning specialists, one-on-one and group tutoring, and houses the locker room areas for the men's and women's soccer and lacrosse programs, and the athletic department administration.

The "Rodkin" follows the RWJBarnabas Health Athletic Performance Center, which opened to the delight of the gymnastics, wrestling, and men's and women's basketball programs. In addition to providing world-class practice facilities, training areas, locker rooms and office spaces for those programs, the Center also represents a partnership between Rutgers and RWJBarnabas Health to create a comprehensive sports medicine program to serve Rutgers athletes, students and communities throughout New Jersey.

Much of the capital project success can be credited to "R B1G Build," a comprehensive campaign launched on Jan. 20, 2016 to raise $100 million for new or upgraded facilities.

RUTGERS UNIVERSITY

With his leadership, Hobbs has directed the construction of The Brown Family Football Locker Room, The Marco Battaglia Football Practice Complex, The Fred Hill Training Complex, The Garutti Strength and Conditioning Center, The Druskin Strength and Conditioning Center and the Abe Suydam Men's Basketball Locker Room. Additional facility improvements have extended to new playing surfaces at Bainton Field and the Rutgers Softball Complex as well as new locker room areas for softball, field hockey, cross country and track and field.

Enhancing the student-athlete experience is a priority for Hobbs and is laid out in his strategic vision for the athletic department. He placed an emphasis on elevated communication, improved resource allocation and enriched customer service. The Office of Leadership Development and Strategic Partnerships (LDSP) completed an organizational redesign and unit rebrand that redefined its mission and vision. The unit has focused on professional development, providing each of the department's student-athletes with an opportunity to earn work experience through internships and professional shadowing.

In the consumer space, Hobbs shepherded the partnership between Rutgers and adidas, providing that the Portland-based company serves as the official athletic footwear, apparel and accessory brand through 2023-24.

Prior to joining Rutgers, Hobbs served as Ombudsman to the Office of the Governor in the Christie administration, serving as a resource for whistleblowers within the Office. He also oversaw ethics training and guidance to the 140 employees in the Office of the Governor.

Hobbs moved south down the New Jersey Turnpike after notable achievements at Seton Hall University. He joined the Seton Hall Law faculty in 1990 with a specialty in tax law. Hobbs became Associate Dean for Finance in 1995 and was named Dean in 1999, a position he held until 2015. In his years as Dean, He shepherded the Law School through a series of groundbreaking initiatives that raised Seton Hall Law to unprecedented prominence. The school was the fastest-rising law school in the U.S. News & World Report ranking over the past decade. From 2009 to 2011 Hobbs also oversaw Seton Hall's Department of Athletics, bringing new leadership to its men's and women's basketball programs, restructuring the Department, and negotiating the contract with the Prudential Center to serve as the home site for men's basketball games.

The Garden State product also spearheaded the school's largest fundraising initiative, Seton Hall Law Rising, a $25 million-plus campaign that revitalized alumni support and resulted in a contribution rate of over 70 percent.

ավավակակակավակակությ

Hobbs has been dedicated to fostering greater diversity in the legal profession. In 2008, he formed the Dean's Diversity Council, comprising faculty, students, alumni and administration working in concert to enhance the Law School's inclusive environment. In 2012, Hobbs was honored by the Thurgood Marshall College Fund with its Excellence Award for his work on behalf of diversity within the legal profession and for "exemplifying Justice Thurgood Marshall's commitment to justice, civil rights and education."

Prior to joining Seton Hall Law, Hobbs was a tax attorney with the law firm of Shanley & Fisher in Roseland, N.J. He received his B.A. in accounting, magna cum laude, from Seton Hall University, his J.D. from the University of North Carolina and his LL.M. (in taxation) from New York University.

Hobbs, 61, is the proud father of three children and resides in Basking Ridge, N.J. with wife Patrice.

HISTORY & TRADITION

BIG TEN CONFERENCE

Known as one of intercollegiate sports' most successful undertakings, the Big Ten is home to a lineage of legendary names and an ongoing tradition of developing strong leaders. Even in its infancy, the conference established itself as the preeminent collection of institutions in the nation, where the pursuit of academic excellence prevailed as the definitive goal.

The history of the Big Ten traces back more than 120 years to the Palmer House hotel in Chicago, where on January 11. 1895, then-Purdue president James H. Smart and leaders from the University of Chicago, University of Illinois, University of Michigan, University of Minnesota, Northwestern University and University of Wisconsin set out to organize and develop principles for the regulation of intercollegiate athletics.

At that meeting, a blueprint for the administration of college athletics under the direction of appointed faculty representatives was outlined. The presidents' first known action "restricted eligibility for athletics to bonafide, full-time students who were not delinquent in their studies." That important legislation, along with other legislation that would follow in the coming years, served as the primary building block for intercollegiate athletics.

On February 8, 1896, one faculty member from each of those seven universities met at the same Palmer House and officially established the mechanics of the conference, which was officially incorporated as the "Intercollegiate Conference Athletic

Indiana University and the State University of Iowa became the eighth and ninth members in 1899. In 1908, Michigan briefly withdrew its membership, and in 1912 Ohio State University joined the conference, bringing its membership total back to nine. Upon Michigan's return in 1917, the conference was first referred to as the "Big Ten" by media members, and that name was eventually incorporated in 1987

As the 1900s opened, faculty representatives established rules for intercollegiate athletics that were novel for the time. As early as 1904, the faculty approved legislation that required eligible athletes to meet entrance requirements and to have completed a full year's work, along with having one year of

In 1901, the first Big Ten Championship event was staged when the outdoor track and field championships were held at the University of Chicago. The debut event marked what is now a staple of conference competition. Today, the Big Ten sponsors 28 official sports, 14 for men and 14 for women, including the addition of men's ice hockey and men's and women's lacrosse over the last four years. Big Ten schools compete in a total of 42 different sports, furthering the conference's commitment to broad-based programming and providing more participation opportunities than any conference in the country.

One of the conference's proudest traditions began in 1902 when Michigan took on Stanford in the Rose Bowl, the nation's first bowl game. Big Ten teams only appeared in Pasadena twice before the conference signed an exclusive contract with the Tournament of Roses in 1946, making it the first bowl game with permanent conference affiliations. But Michigan's appearance in 1902 cultivated a relationship that has endured for more than a century. In January 2014, Michigan State defeated Stanford in the 100th Rose Bowl Game.

Coupling the academic goals set forth by the leaders of the charter members of the conference and their steadfast commitment to athletics, the conference instituted the Big Ten Medal of Honor in 1915. It is awarded annually by each conference institution to a student of the graduating class who has attained the greatest proficiency in scholarship and athletics. For more than 100 years, it has been the most prestigious honor a student competing in Big Ten athletics can receive.

In 1922, Major John L. Griffith became the conference's first "Commissioner of Athletics." Griffith was the first of six men to assume the role of commissioner in the conference's history. followed by Kenneth L. "Tug" Wilson in 1945, Bill Reed in 1961, Wayne Duke in 1971, Jim Delany in 1989, and current commissioner Kevin Warren in 2020

After nearly 30 years with 10 members, the conference consolidated to nine schools when the University of Chicago formally withdrew its membership in 1946. Michigan State College (now Michigan State University) was added to the Big Ten three years later, bringing the number of affiliated conference schools to 10 once again

In 1955, the Big Ten formulated a revenue-sharing model designed to pool all football television rights of its members and share those proceeds equally. The conference and its members continue to utilize a revenue-sharing model, dividing media rights, bowl payouts and other profits among all confer-

While academics have always played an integral role in the conference, presidents of the Big Ten member institutions formalized the primacy of academics with the establishment of the Big Ten Academic Alliance (formerly the Committee on Institutional Cooperation) in 1958. The Big Ten Academic Alliance is an academic consortium of all Big Ten universities. Annually, the schools currently constituting the Big Ten Academic Alliance produced over $10 billion in funded research, $5 billion more than any other conference.

In one of Duke's first actions as commissioner, he oversaw the adoption of the Big Ten Advisory Commission in 1972, designed to study conference programs and make suggestions which would further Big Ten objectives. The Advisory Commission enlists former students that competed in Big Ten athletics to serve as liaisons to the NCAA's Diversity and Inclusion Department, the Big Ten Student-Athlete Advisory Commission and other organizations.

In 1981, the conference presidents and chancellors endorsed a proposal that enabled universities to affiliate their women's intercollegiate programs with the conference, and the first conference championships for women were staged that fall. The Big Ten was the first conference to voluntarily adopt male and female participation goals after launching its Gender Equity Action Plan in 1992

In December of 1989, the conference agreed in principle to invite Pennsylvania State University for membership. On June 4, 1990, the Council of Presidents officially voted to integrate Penn State into the conference, giving the Big Ten 11 mem-

In 2004, the Big Ten implemented a pilot program of instant replay for college football. Following the season, the conference forwarded replay proposals to the NCAA regarding the future use of instant replay, where it approved country-wide testing in 2005. In 2006, the NCAA approved the use of instant replay for all conferences.

In 2006, Delany announced the creation of the first conference-owned television network, a 20-year agreement with FOX Networks to create what would become the Big Ten Network (BTN). Launched on Aug. 30, 2007, BTN now produces more than 1,800 events across all platforms each year. BTN is in almost 60 million homes in the U.S. and Canada via the nation's major video providers and more than 300 additional video providers across the country. BTN is also available through the majority of OTT providers, and via the Fox Sports App, which delivers live and on-demand programming to computers, smartphones and tablets. In addition, the BTN+ platform streams hundreds of events each season

On June 11, 2010, the Big Ten Council of Presidents/Chancellors (COP/C) approved a formal membership application by the University of Nebraska, expanding the conference to 12 institutions. Nebraska officially joined the Big Ten on July 1, 2011.

The conference expanded its footprint further in 2012 when the COP/C approved formal membership applications from the University of Maryland and Rutgers University on November 19 and 20, respectively. Maryland and Rutgers became official Big Ten members on July 1, 2014, giving the conference almost 9,500 students participating in intercollegiate athletics and more than 11,000 participation opportunities on 350 teams.

On June 3, 2013, the Big Ten announced that Johns Hopkins University had been accepted as the conference's first sport affiliate member. Johns Hopkins' addition in men's lacrosse gave the Big Ten six institutions sponsoring the sport, allowing the debut of men's lacrosse as an official conference sport and building on the Big Ten's tradition of broad-based sports competition. On June 17, 2015, the conference announced that Johns Hopkins was accepted as a sport affiliate member for women's lacrosse beginning with the 2016-17 academic year. On March 23, 2016, the conference announced that Notre Dame would be joining the Big Ten for men's ice hockey beginning with the 2017-18 academic year

Since opening in the fall of 2013, the Big Ten conference center hosts more than 300 meetings annually for member institutions. Big Ten Academic Alliance (formerly CIC) related committees and coaches' groups. The headquarters also features an interactive digital museum - the Big Ten Experience which brings the conference's storied academic and athletic history to life.

BIG TEN CONFERENCE

In June 2014, the Big Ten opened a second office in New York City, featuring both office and meeting space in Midtown Manhattan. Big Ten staff members are based in the New York City office to provide expanded coverage and service, while other conference and institutional administrators utilize the space as necessary when conducting business on the East Coast. The Big Ten and its member institutions also have access to satellite office space in Washington, D.C.

Warren and his staff work to meet the educational needs of student-athletes to allow them to excel in all areas of their lives. The conference office manages 27 different championships and tournaments, offers legislative and compliance services, oversees the production and distribution of more than 2,000 events annually, provides staff services to coaching and administrative personnel, and remains a vital resource for media and fans seeking information on the Big Ten.

During his first year, Warren has helped spark a number of groundbreaking conference initiatives. On March 7, 2020, in advance of the rising tide of the COVID-19 pandemic, the conference partnered with all 14 of its member institutions to create the Big Ten Task Force for Emerging Infectious Diseases. This group was formed to provide counsel and sound medical advice to ensure the health, safety and wellness of the Rig Ten's students coaches administrators and fans. It includes representatives from a diverse set of disciplines across campus healthcare systems and schools of public health and their input serves as a resource for the conference in making important decisions based on information received from local. state and federal health departments, along with the NCAA.

Less than two months later on May 4, 2020, the conference announced the formation of the Big Ten Mental Health and Wellness Cabinet, featuring representation from all 14 member institutions, as well as sport affiliate members Johns Hopkins (men's and women's lacrosse) and Notre Dame (men's ice hockey). The goal of the cabinet is to promote optimal mental health for Big Ten student-athletes through a comprehensive, systemic and interdisciplinary approach to establishing mental health programs, while also providing counsel, advice and expertise to the conference office.

Following the death of Minneapolis resident George Floyd, Warren penned an open letter on June 1, 2020, announcing the formation of what became known as the Big Ten Equality Coalition. This group, which features student-athletes, coaches, athletic directors, chancellors, presidents and other members of the Big Ten family from all 14 member institutions, has a stated goal of seeking tangible ways to actively and constructively combat racism and hate around the world. while also empowering student-athletes to express their rights to free speech and peaceful protest. The United States Library of Congress selected Warren's open letter for inclusion in its historic collection.

A product of the conversations emerging from the coalition was the creation of the Big Ten Voter Registration Initiative. This non-partisan, conference-wide collaboration encourages student-athletes to take part in the electoral process and is led by a Voter Registration Committee that includes representatives from all 14 Big Ten institutions. The Voter Registration Committee has partnered with the National Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights Under Law to develop educational programming and outreach tools, and to collaborate with other established civic platforms.
